EDITORIAL

In 1967, the editors of this magazine presented an optimistic report and synopsis of what was for us an exciting innovation. There had been created a student body whose function was to facilitate co-operation between the administration and the School. This "School Council" was hailed as the basis of a truly New Zealand educational system incorporating elements of the old English traditionalism, and the more modern American systems to encourage personal participation and development.

Sadly, the optimism of the 1967 editorial proved unfounded. The Council collapsed—and who can say where the fault lies? Since this demise, the School has indeed progressed, particularly in the academic fields—for example, our study and tutorial system—but each reform or advancement has been instituted and developed by the administration alone, with no help or co-operation from the student body. In the non-educational aspects of the School, the once rejected suggestions of the Council have suddenly and belatedly been implemented by the administration, much to the profound bewilderment of the student body. Two prime examples are the perennially-passed motions to do away with the school cap, and to run and staff a school Canteen. Both have now come to reality apparently in spite of the Council. Surely this is not the way to develop civil responsibilities in the young adult—one can only expect of an adult as much as he has been taught to give, and to do only as much as he has been taught to do. The basis of democracy lies in co-operation, and what better way to learn this, as well as the basics of Civics, than to have a hand in the running, and the formulation of policy, of a school,

We must revive this organisation to encourage the learning of civic skills and the awareness of responsibility. We must regain the feeling of pride and participation in our education and in the School's activities.

The onus of revival lies on the student body; we look to the Rector and Staff to foster its development. The problems of the 1970's demand nothing less than a united approach.

TERM 1

FEBRUARY

Tues. 3rd: U6th returns only to be told that they are now to be designated as 7th Form. Hair and side-board length is stipulated by the new "dean" of the 7th Form, Mr. Robertson. . . . "But what if you've got a short neck?" asks a wit.

Rector then gives the hairy lads a heartwarming speech about the 7th Form's responsibilities . . . "now that you are the elite of the School".

Wed. 4th: The 4th are given the identical speech.

The 7th organise the timetable. 3G1 end up with English scheduled to period 6, Saturday. . . . "When at first you don't succeed . . ."

Thur. 5th: 3rd Form sports (once again supervised by the 7th). "Detested sport that owes its pleasures to another's pain" (Cowper).

Rest of school waits hopefully for textbooks.

Mon. 9th: Order starts to appear. Some people even know when school starts. (This "Dean" business is starting to go to some people's heads. . . . "Power corrupts.")

Tues. 10th: As timetable grumbles into motion, a skulking figure with hand covering his face is seen wandering the corridors. Upon closer inspection the newly bearded (?) face of Mr. McIntosh is revealed . . . "And everybody stared . . ."

Thur. 12th: Voting for prefects. It is rumoured that a 5th Form class has voted en masse for some mythical fellow called Pomeroy. "We have more than our share of the nattering nabobs of negativism" (Spiro Agnew).

Fri. 13th: Those superstitious types take pains not to bring upon themselves the wrath of the gods.

Mon. 16th: The Further Adventures of R-nnie, Part I: When at last Mr. Robertson comes to take 7Hist for a period, he merely tells them that he probably won't have time to see them for a few days, and leaves. The class is shocked, dismayed, but otherwise quite delighted.

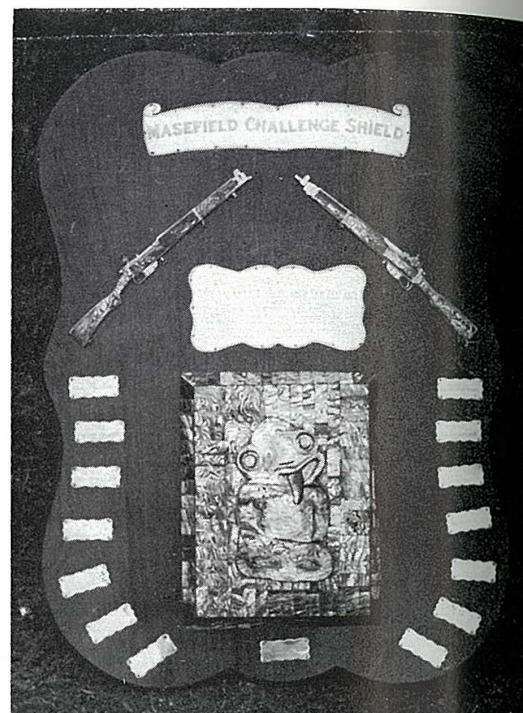

Wed. 18th: Another beard arrives at school—Mr. Vercauteren.

Thur. 19th: The Further Adventures of R-nnie, Part II: The 7th Form "dean" has a haircut inspection after assembly. Envy takes over as head after head is told to divest itself of its protective covering. "These hairs which thou dost ravish . . . shall quicken and accuse thee" (Shaks.).

Fri. 20th: An underground organisation starts to appear. Predominant in its membership are those that don't feel that they deserve a haircut. Grandiose plans for the "Revolution" are formulated. "Revolutions are sometimes brought about by fraud" (Aristotle).

Mon. 23rd: Shooting team returns from Trentham with the Masefield Challenge Shield awarded to the best secondary school shooting team in New Zealand.

After noticing that all of 7Eng A are viewing his beard (?), with ill-contained mirth, Mr. McIntosh explains: "I tried." Pomeroy informs all that after a couple of weeks his beard would have made the Hon. McIntosh look clean-shaven. "By the kind gods, 'tis most ignobly done to pluck me by the beard" (Shaks.).

THE MASEFIELD CHALLENGE SHIELD

Thur. 26th: First batch of prefects announced. The looks on the faces of two who missed had to be seen to be believed. Bunton's face was about the same when he saw who he had been lumbered with as deputies. "For a foundation men must needs begin with faith" (More's "Utopia").

Fri. 27th: The Further Adventures of R-nnie, Part III: The above-mentioned spends his first whole period with 7Hist. But, he only teaches them how to make "Ho Chis" (i.e. sandals made from old car tyres). At the end of this stimulating period he leaves, muttering about work. ". . . but fools despise wisdom and instruction" (Bible).

MARCH

Mon. 2nd: After a bit of a power struggle over whether 7Fr. should be somewhere else for French. Mr. Vercauteren says: "If you want to learn, stay; but if you don't, you are free to go."

Accordingly, 7Fr. leaves. "Y'know that was the last thing on my mind" (Dylan).

Wed. 4th: From the out-of-bounds grass plot outside the Library, Stan kicks a magnificent drop-kick through the East cloakroom window. "Will Fergie Be Replaced For The Tour?" (Newspaper headline).

Entries for School Sports taken. Once more, the Senior Mile seems well supported.

Thur. 5th: Those who have been mistakenly entered for the more rigorous events scurry to Mr. Waterston to correct the error. "Who's the — who put me down for the championship hurdles?" is a common cry.

Mon. 9th: Sports start. Without Mr. Turvey on the megaphone something seems to be lacking. Nothing much happens until the glamour event is scheduled. The Senior Mile gets off to a good start, and after two circuits a pattern has begun to appear. By the end of the race, the pattern is very apparent, Pomeroy wins by a knobbly knee, and everyone else is second. The officials do not seem to recognise this as an example of that elusive "School Spirit" so a re-run is ordered.

Tues. 10th: Sports continue. The Senior Mile is run again (without Pomeroy) but all the glamour has left it. At one stage there is an unexplained stampede of 75 per cent. of all present to one point of the field. Unexplained, that is until it is noticed that Girls' High has arrived. "Who are those hooded hordes swarming over endless plains?" (T. S. Eliot). There were rumours that some strange types had actually been taking part in athletic events—what's happening to the sports?

Thurs. 12th: First dance of the year is held at Girls' High. More females than males, so overall it is a good dance.

Fri. 13th: The Further Adventures of R-nnie, Part IV: 7 Hist. receives a fascinating lecture on the intricate workings of a letterpress. Several students are also informed that their hair is somewhat lengthy. "Well boys, we'll start History on Monday."

Those who were superstitious on Fri. 13th Feb. are doubly so now—two Fri. 13th's in two months!

Mon. 16th: Over the week-end, Southland Inter-Secondary School Athletic Champs. are held. The School does very well.

Wed. 18th: Miller (H. R. F.)'s shoe travels two or three times around the assembly hall. "Are you ready, boots . . . start walkin'" (Ancient Druid chant).

Thur. 19th: Our fine lads escape classes for the day to watch O.B.H.S. and S.B.H.S. battle it out in cricket and tennis.

Mon. 23rd: Once more over the week-end the School partakes in athletics—this time the Otago-Southland champs. at Dunedin.

Thurs. 26th: The Biology Dept's rats that arrived earlier in the term start giving forth with sextuplets and more. Arnold and Josephine seem to be very much in love. When trying to catch a rat, the following information should be kept in mind, quote: "Rats are difficult to trap, and, if caught, will frequently bite off a limb so as to escape" (Vol. 2, Oxford Jr. Encyclopedia). It doesn't really make it clear whose limb it is, the trapper or the trapped.

Fri. 27th: Easter comes as a blessed relief. (Nobody has done any work but sitting around looking intelligent really takes it out of you.)

APRIL

Wed. 1st: Like the thirds, Easter gets smaller every year. Winter sports programme starts in somewhat of a shambles.

Thurs. 2nd: Some wise fellow brings to the School's notice that yesterday was April Fool's Day. A person, who will remain anonymous, is heard to mutter, "I knew I'd forgotten something."

Mon. 6th: The Further Adventures of R-nnie, Part V: "Well boys, we're starting History today. . . . Oh, by the way, did any of you see that religious programme last night?"

Wed. 8th: During sports period, those who decline to take part get the job of clearing up the School. Mr. Scott takes malicious delight in ordering 7th Formers to "get going; you've hardly picked up anything." "The Supreme Authority will it; therefore it is just" (Aristotle).

Thurs. 9th: Second batch of prefects are announced. Waldron nudges Pomeroy and scoffs derisively when Pomeroy's name is called, then goes a beautiful shade of green when he hears his own. "He who laughs last . . ."

Fri. 10th: We hold a dance, but only just, for a day before it only eleven tickets have been sold. Mr. Beatson upbraids several 7th Formers for walking three abreast down the corridor.

Mon. 13th: For some reason absolutely nothing happens during this week. Perhaps it is because the School has started working.

Mon. 20th: The Rector informs the Senior School that "I'm doing well with the female staff." "I used to be cruel to my women" (Lennon/McCartney).

Tues. 21st: First rumblings of a 7th Form common room are heard. Mr. Fyffe tells us that there's only one thing; before it gets going, we've got to pay the School 50 dollars damage money! We protest that we are not a destructive breed but "more trust be given to countenances and deeds than to words" (Bacon)—seems to be the Administration's attitude.

Fri. 24th: The back row in Senior Assembly launches into an out-of-tune but optimistic rendering of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic". Not all the words were the original ones!

"There cannot be too much merriment" (Spinoza).

Mon. 27th: Power-mad Pomeroy goes berserk. He sees a uniformed child gaily cycling through the park, leaps on his bike, spends 20 minutes chasing him, returns with his tongue flapping round his ankles and informs us that the "third" was from Southland College. "Anyone can make a mistake."

Tues. 28th: Why does Black stand up with the Prefects during the assembly? Perhaps only to show everyone that "Black is beautiful".

MAY

Fri. 1st: Entries for the swimming sports are requested. Several faces are missing at the House meetings. Not that it matters for the sports are postponed anyway.

Mon. 4th: Pomeroy arrives at school with the makings of a beard. Messrs. Robertson, Jones, Alabaster and Martin tell him to have a shave.

"It's the only thing I can do half right and it's turning out all wrong" (Top 20 Hit).

Fri. 8th: Both Mr. Beatson and Mr. Robertson are farewelled. Mr. Beatson retires to work in the Public Library while Mr. Robertson leaves to teach and lap up the sun in Nelson. Unfortunately the 7th Form miss these auspicious occasions as they are at the Kelvin Hotel learning about "Alcoholism". School gives up for two weeks.

TERM 2

Tues. 26th: Holidays over once more. Various beards, moustaches and sidies are reluctantly shaved off. "Parting is such sweet sorrow" (Shakespeare).

Thurs. 28th: People suddenly start remembering that exams are exactly 10 school days away. A discussion group starts up in the library study room. "When are you starting swot?"—"I dunno, when are you?" "Oh well, there's always Queen's Birthday week-end!"

JUNE

Tues. 2nd: After the holiday week-end everybody is fresh and healthy and can't wait for the start of exams.

Wed. 3rd: 2nd XV plays Hargest. The result isn't very important but for those who sympathise with Hargest, we lost.

Fri. 5th: During English, Pomeroy gives up swotting and picks a fight with both Bunton and Colhoun. Bunton receives a hefty blow. "Sorry," says Pomeroy.

Mon. 8th: Thompson boots a deflated rugby ball through the Prefects' Room window.

Thurs. 11th: Exams begin.

Wed. 17th: Halfway through the exams, sports teams leave to play O.B.H.S. at Dunedin. Only hockey wins "but that was because of the exams and ground conditions".

Mon. 22nd: By this time exams are finished, but we are told to start working again without the normal fortnight-long "slack spell". Of course everyone immediately does so, officially at least.

Wed. 24th: In a fit of post-exam depression, Morison starts slicing up rats on a bandsaw. "A boy who kills a butterfly could kill a man" (Morrison—not Alistair—Howard).

Thurs. 25th: Marks start trickling back. "We are all of us failures—at least the best of us are" (Barrie).

Mon. 29th: Mr. Fitzgerald tells 7 Chem. B that "I am completely mad. I am out of my senses being a school teacher." Now he tells us.

JULY

Wed. 1st: Sports teams disappear once again, this time to Waitaki and Linwood. At least the Debating team wins.

Eight

Fri. 3rd: Bunton arrives back with the teams very impressed by the haka parties up north. "Um. I'd like all 6th and 7th Formers to stay behind after assembly." School spirit runs high as duplicated sheets of the haka (and Land of My Fathers) are handed out to us all.

Tues. 7th: Stan is beaten up by a savage 6th Former. "Oh the shame, the shame."

Fri. 10th: Entries for outside exams having been made, the money is now paid. "You mean we have to pay for this?" It seems that there are more people going for Schol. than ever before. "An optimist is a guy that has never had much experience" (Marquis).

Tues. 14th: Those who returned to school on Monday suddenly realise that it was mid-term break.

Wed. 15th: The haka party that has been practising so hard for the past month have a chance to show their worth at the King's match. To no avail, however, for the best we could get was a draw.

Fri. 17th: On the coldest day of the year the heaters won't go. The assembly hall becomes one great shuddering mass. "Everybody complains about the weather but nobody does anything about it" (Twain). Well, you'd think they could at least get the boiler going.

Tues. 21st: Rector conducts assembly in a few rousing choruses of some less than well-known hymn. "I believe I did hear something from the back row, sir."

Fri. 24th: Scene—Rector's Office. Stan knocks and enters. "Ah Osborne, I've been wanting to see you. Your hair is far too long. Get a haircut."

Mon. 28th: With the Girls' High Ball about 10 days away, a lot of crawling, extortion and blackmail is being perpetrated. All for tickets, it seems.

Wed. 30th: Mr. Scott has a haircut. "Better a bald head than none at all" (O'Malley). At the same time the Rector starts to grow sidies. "If you can't beat 'em, join 'em" (Anon.).

Thurs. 31st: Ash and Bayliss are requested to stand up in senior assembly. It seems that the argument, "But I'm in the 7th Form", now carries no weight.

AUGUST

Wed. 5th: Pomeroy arrives at school with his shirt neatly buttoned up but no tie. "Judge not a man by his clothes" (Dewar).

Fri. 7th: Girls' High Ball. Except for the fact that no one was able to guess what the theme was (the rumour was "Alice in Wonderland") the ball wasn't too bad. One person claims he counted at least 15 Boys' High types there.

Mon. 10th: Something is missing. Oh yes. Bunton's escaped to Expo 70. Either the ball or thought of exams must have been too much for him.

Timaru B H S. loses rugby. Haka party loses nerve but manages to get halfway through the haka when the final whistle blew.

Wed. 12th: Mr. Berridge advocates nudity for his English class.

Thurs. 13th: Nicholson gets a haircut. This is unusual enough but the barber is Marr and the salon is the assembly hall. "There is a time and place for everything" (Anon.) but I don't think the Administration would mind as long as the result was a haircut.

Mon. 17th: The man from the Jaycees comes to school to demonstrate N.Z.'s famous milk biscuit. The thirds (and others) eagerly pay their 10 cents for a sample and are duly dismayed when they get a sickly looking piece of something about the size and shape of a 5 cent piece. However, the taste isn't too bad and the prefects have an interesting morning tea.

Tues. 18th: During a very important speech from Mr. Waterston in assembly, someone lets loose with a pneumatic drill. To this day no-one knows what Mr. Waterston was trying to say. "Noise pollution is a problem that is becoming increasingly apparent" (Time).

Wed. 19th: Gore, Winton and Lumsden are all blessed with the presence of our sporting lads. No-one seems to miss No. 5.

Christopher Snape, the Otaki Scholar, with us. He recounts his experiences in an Auckland coffee bar. (Some girls found out what Scotsmen wear under their kilts.)

The 1970 Otaki Scholar, Christopher Snape (centre), being shown Invercargill yesterday from the top of the Kelvin Hotel by Southland Boys' High School prefects Peter Buckingham (left) and Philip Jones.

Christopher, complete with a kilt, arrived in the city by railcar from Dunedin at 12.05 p.m.

While here he will take a flight over Southland and Fiordland, call on the Mayor, Mr. N. L. Watson, and play for the S.B.H.S. First XV against an Old Boys' team.

Christopher, aged 18, is spending about six weeks in New Zealand under the scholarship, which is made annually by the New Zealand Shipping Company in memory of the ship "Otaki" which was sunk in World War I by a German raider.

Fri. 21st: School breaks up for a well-deserved rest. G. B. Shaw may believe that "A perpetual holiday is a good working definition of Hell." But I think very few of them would agree with him at this stage.

TERM 3

SEPTEMBER

Tues. 15th: Back to school to discover that the bike-stands and the covered way have disappeared—being replaced by a very large hole and several workmen. Incredibly enough—the new block is on its way.

Wed. 16th: Mr. Hawkhead sees all 7th Formers. "You got 97 in School Cert. Physics. Have you ever thought of doing Greek Studies?"

Thurs. 17th: The conclusion is reached that hymns have disappeared for good. "God is dead" (Nietzsche).

Fri. 18th: Mr. Fyffe informs 7th Formers that they will be devoting three days next week to partake in tests for the International Association for the Evaluation of Educational Achievement (i.e. they want to see if we've learnt anything). We get some complex-looking forms handed out. "Fill these in will you. Don't worry about them though. I'll just take them and burn them" (Fyffe).

Mon. 21st: I.E.A. continues until Wednesday.

Thurs. 24th: Jones tries out a new version of the electric chair. By deviously hooking up the jug to the door handle of something, anyone who opens the door gets a nasty shock. "He will be rejoiced who imagines that which he hates to be affected with pain" (Spinoza).

Fri. 25th: It snows. Black sees the stuff for the first time. He is mightily intrigued by the "droppings of celestial pigeons".

Thirds predictably spend as much time as possible throwing snowballs.

Mon. 28th: Knarston tries to throw Waldron over the bannister outside the Prefects' Room. Both, however, end up flat on their backs while Mr. Thyne looks on.

Wed. 30th: People suddenly start remembering—"exams tomorrow, better start swotting."

OCTOBER

Thurs. 1st: Exams. Pomeroy didn't like English so throws Waldron's case out of the Prefects' Room window.

Fri. 9th: With exams over and results starting to come in, the average scholar starts to think that "He was not made for climbing the tree of knowledge" (Undset).

Mon. 12th: Bunton, who arrived back in time for the exams (queer fellow) receives a letter from Hokitika starting "Dear Man . . ." After reading it everyone wants to write to the girl who wrote the letter. A couple draft letters but haven't the courage to post them.

Tues. 13th: Pomeroy again arrives at school without his tie, and Black sleeps through English. "That indescribable expression peculiar to people who hope they have not been asleep but know they have" (Jackson).

Wed. 14th: Staff-Boys rugby match is held. Looks like something out of "The Wild Bunch".

Thurs. 15: Mr. Alabaster (J. C.) tells us that last night's basketball match was disrupted by girls. "Would have been nice in other circumstances."

Mon. 19th: "School stand!" yells Gray. Unfortunately his voice breaks on the "stand" bit. Much mirth.

Tues. 20th: 90 per cent. of the 7th Form watch the workmen digging holes. "Well, it's the first time we've actually seen them working, isn't it?"

Fri. 23rd: Pomeroy is told, "You'll have to have a shave for the prize-giving." "Oh, I've had one," he says.

Wed. 28th: Bookcheck. Many find out just how many books they've lost. "Oh, I can't have lost twelve books."

Fri. 30th: Voting for a Sports Committee (for the prize list) is held. Fictional candidates (E. B. Scott) are non-starters but our faith in mankind is bolstered when Bunton gets three Fifth Form votes. "Bad officials are elected by good citizens who don't vote" (Nathan).

NOVEMBER

Mon. 2nd: Last batch of prefects is announced (all 6th Form). "Desperation is a terrible situation" (Anon).

Wed. 4th: Rumours of a combined 7th Form social and/or barn dance do not seem to be coming to fruition.

Thurs. 5th: Bunton knocks down a third at last night's Junior School social. "I swear it was an accident."

Wed. 11th: Several people who paid Schol. fees are wishing they hadn't. "It's not pessimism at all; it's realism."

Wed. 18th: 7th Form leaves to grow hair and beards, to get jobs, to have a good time, and perhaps even to go to a Bursaries exam or two. Bunton finally gets what he deserves.

PRACTISING DISCIPLINARY ACTION!

Mon. 23rd: Bursaries start. "There is nothing more frightful than ignorance in action" (Goethe).

Thurs. 26th: U.E. starts. "Oh well. What's another year in the 6th Form?"

DECEMBER

Tues. 8th: Senior Prize-giving. Waldron and Thompson are joint dux.

Fri. 11th: School ends. "Not with a bang but a whimper."

HONOURS ACHIEVED BY STUDENTS

During the year pupils of the School achieved some outstanding successes in the local community and beyond in a variety of fields. Some of the most outstanding are recorded here.

MARK TREFFERS

(N.Z. Commonwealth Games Swimmer)

Mark was chosen to represent New Zealand at the 1970 Commonwealth Games at Edinburgh. This was indeed a high honour for one so young. Selection meant he had to spend a lot of time training in Christchurch and so he attended school there during this time.

Altogether Mark swam in six events. In the 400 Metres Freestyle he set a N.Z. record in the heats. He was a member of the 4 x 100 Metres Relay team which gained fifth place in the final; the 4 x 200 Metres Relay team which just missed third place; the 4 x 100 Metres Medley Relay team which gained sixth place in the final. Mark's most outstanding achievement, however, was in the 1500 Metres Freestyle, the longest swimming event at the Games. In the final he gained the Bronze Medal and reduced the N.Z. record to 16min. 44.69sec. This was a very fine performance by any standards.

We can look forward to further honours for Mark at the Olympic Games in Munich in 1972.

MUSIC

Geoff Murdoch, a violinist, was leader of the National Secondary Schools' Orchestra in Hamilton during the May holidays. He also participated in the National Youth Orchestra in Dunedin during the August holidays. This orchestra also recorded several radio and television performances. It performed in Oamaru and culminated a week's practice with a performance in the Dunedin Town Hall.

Locally, he gained the Beath Memorial Prize for Grade VIII examination marks and also succeeded with the practical part of his A.T.C.L. performer's diploma.

Pieter Vanderley, a trombonist, played in the National Youth Band in January. The band consisted of 45 instrumentalists and practised for two weeks at Lincoln College, near Christchurch, before going on a five-day tour encompassing concerts in Westport, Nelson and New Plymouth.

The two-week preparatory course resulted in a number of radio and television recordings.

CHESS

Arthur Pomeroy was one of two representatives from N.Z. who have been chosen to play in the Australian Schoolboy Championships held at Perth in January, 1971. Arthur has had many successes in the chess world and this is a just reward for his efforts.

CRICKET

Brian McKechnie was selected in a National Secondary Schoolboy Cricket Team to play in Australia in January. Twenty-two days of cricket will be contained in a five-week tour. The "playing" highlight will be a week-long inter-state tournament. The team will centre their tour around Sydney, where it will spend three days watching the Fourth Test for the "Ashes"—the "non-playing" highlight of the tour.

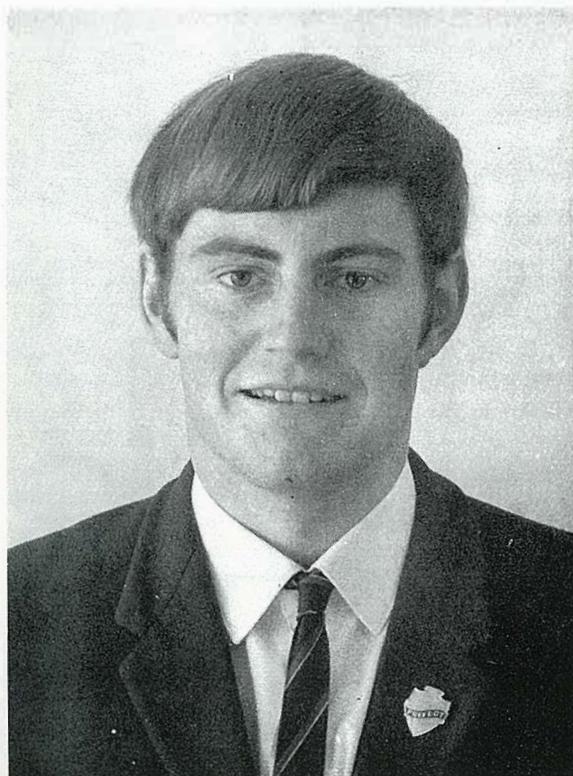

Brian was also selected for this season's Southland senior squad. This tour will cause unavailability for provincial representation.

OLD BOYS' ASSOCIATION AWARD:

A Course at Anakiwa

1970 is the inception year of an award, made by the Old Boys' Association to a boy of the School enabling him to attend the Anakiwa Outward Bound School. This award involves a considerable sum of money and is of particular merit because of the character-developing aspects of the course. It is designed to promote initiative, endurance, physical fitness and competency in an outdoor existence.

The first award was made this year to Philip Jones, a prefect, debater, and 1st XV rugby player. The choice of Philip is particularly fortuitous, for, as a Sixth Former returning next year, and a prefect, he will act as a good model and advertisement for the award, which we hope will be as big a success as it deserves to be.

TENNIS

Lester Smith was selected for the Linton Cup squad selected to play against Australia. Twelve players under 19 are chosen from throughout N.Z. Unfortunately, Lester was not available to pursue this opportunity.

ART

Mark Delamare and Bryan Poole came first and second respectively in the Otago Polytechnic Centennial Art Award. They received 50 dollars and a 30-dollar paint set from the hands of the Governor-General at a gala occasion at the Dunedin Art Gallery. The boys' paintings were also exhibited in the Art Galley in distinguished company. The competition was open to all secondary schools of Southland and Otago.

SKIING

Four boys in the School have won McKenzie Scholarships, the top junior skiing award.

Les Cuthill had a fine season's racing, gaining seventh place in the New Zealand Open Ski Championships. Because he broke his leg, he was unable to take up the scholarship.

Bruce Mills has had two McKenzie Scholarships. This year he was first overall in the Southland District Ski Association Open Championships, and first in the Wakatipu Club's Senior Championship.

John Flaus, after being a reserve McKenzie Scholar in 1969, took a full scholarship this year. He was also first in the Wakatipu Club's Intermediate Championships.

Apart from taking a scholarship, Bruce Liddell was also successful in winning first place in the S.D.S.A. Junior Championship.

PUBLIC SPEAKING

Lewis Gray was the Southland finalist in the Anthony Eden Public Speaking Contest held annually. Although he did not gain a place in the final, Lewis performed most creditably. He has been a member of the School Debating team since the Fourth Form and on many occasions has carried off the prize for the best speaker and helped his team to an enviable record of successes.

AROUND THE SCHOOL

"Not for School, but for Life" . . .

The Study and Tutorial System

For the past two years, this School has pioneered and developed a unique system of timetabling classes and teaching periods, designed to nurture in the individual the ability to think independently and to find information on his own initiative—in short, to prepare a person for an environment in which information is not spoon-fed to him.

Basically, the new system consists of only five teaching periods per subject per week, with one "tutorial" period allocated to each subject per week. Out of the 35 periods in the week, 25 are spent in a classroom, supervised by a teaching master; five are for extra-curricular activities; and five are timetabled by pupils and masters in co-operation to allow reduced classes of pupils to personally discuss any points relevant to their work with their subject teachers. This is the nearest that a student can get, in these times of teacher employment troubles, to a personalised teaching session, i.e. a tutorial.

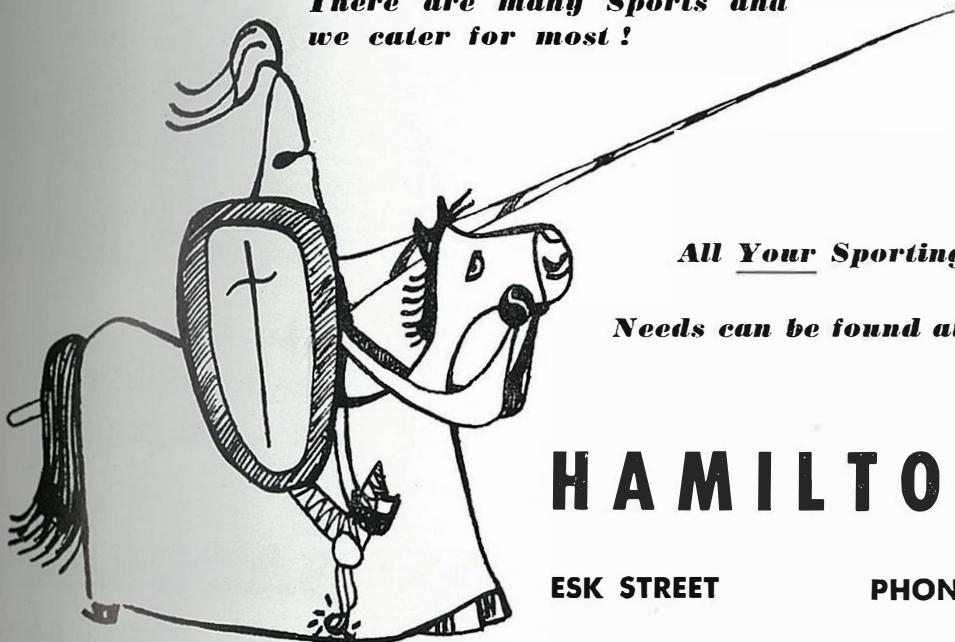

Third, Fourth and Lower Fifth Forms are not affected by the study system. They are fully timetabled for 35 periods per week. Upper Fifth, Sixth and Seventh Form classes operate on the study system; the Seventh Form is granted special privileges in that extra-curricular activities become optional at this stage. Thus, in effect a Seventh Former has 10 study periods at his disposal. In order to prepare this group (most of whom will study at tertiary level) for university learning, a concession has been made to the effect that they are not required at school during their study periods, but may instead study at home.

The consensus of opinion in the Senior School is that, in the main, the system does achieve that which it aims for—to teach the pupil to teach himself. We still have our problems, for timetabling can be a nightmare, often with tutorials being taken with a teacher other than one's normal subject teacher—but we believe that these problems are counter-balanced by the obvious advantages, both from the point of view of the pupil and the teacher.

In teaching this independence, we can truly claim to have lived up to our motto—"Not for School but for Life we are learning."

I.E.A. (1970)

The above initials stand for the "International Association for the Evaluation of Educational Achievement".

Early in the third term the Seventh Form spent two and a-half days undergoing various written tests set by the Association, which will be co-related with similar tests in 119 other N.Z. schools and finally analysed by computer in Switzerland.

The object of this testing and processing is to study different school systems (in administration, curricula, teaching methods, etc.) and their results, over 19 participating countries.

The actual tests are split into different achievement groups, or "populations". At S.B.H.S., the Seventh Forms were classified as populations IV and IVs. The particular subjects researched were science, reading comprehension and literature (with a particular emphasis on science for population IVs, who were pupils taking mostly science subjects).

Also there were general cards to be filled in, asking the participants about their particular school and home life, which could perhaps have the most interesting and useful results.

Sample question:

How many hours' homework do you do each night?
(a) 0 hours, (b) 1 hour, (c) 2-3 hours, (d) 4-5 hours, (e) 5 hours or more.

Overall, it is felt by the pupils concerned that although they themselves will probably not benefit from the programme, the two and a-half days may well be productive in the future. It is certainly to be hoped so.

"The Power Game"

YOUNG "SIR JOHN WILDERS" MANIPULATE THE MILLIONS

A business management course organised by International Computers Limited has given an air of affluency to a dozen Sixth and Seventh Formers over the greater part of the middle term. Boys have met in earnest groups and have together schemed and plotted to increase sales of an unspecified "thing" and make even more millions of dollars—all on paper, of course.

Fifteen teams from six schools have taken part in the course, with each team being allowed certain resources to manufacture and market a "Thing". The project calls for decisions at a "directorial" level, with regards to pricing, production, research and development, plant capacity and the budgeting of trade resources. The decisions have been changed to computer punch cards by the Southland Frozen Meat Co. Ltd's Invercargill computer and later processed in Christchurch. The processed results are circulated to the teams weekly, showing them how each is using their resources.

The competition was won by the Southland College team, who pulled off a major financial coup in the last phase and displaced the Southland Boys' High B team, who eventually were placed third.

Staff Notes, 1970

It is perhaps too much to hope that our situation this year of having more arrivals than departures will prevail in future years, but it certainly happened, and let us rejoice.

The departure of Ron Robertson for Nelson was a serious loss to the School and to the staffroom. He was a most engaging companion, with real gifts in the classroom and in administration.

The other losses were of temporary or relieving teachers. Among them were Mr. Beatson, who left us for the more relaxed atmosphere of the Public Library; Mr. Lonsdale, to complete his M.A. at University, and whom we will welcome back permanently next year; Mr. Griffin, who arrived during a cold spell and thought longingly of his native Queensland; Mrs. Matthews, who travelled overseas; Mr. Peter Williams, who left to begin his studies to enter the Church of England; Mr. Joy, who also found the Southland climate uncongenial and its accent incomprehensible. We were sorry to lose Mr. Galbraith for health reasons, after so short a stay, and Mr. Anderson to industry.

It was a pleasure to welcome Miss Lynch, who became Mrs. Holmes, and gives every indication of being one Australian who does like the deep south; Mr. Burgess, who contributed strongly to the school's, and to the province's, football strength; Mr. Clarke, who showed us a really new hair style; Miss Mutch, with charm and a French accent actually gained in France; the ebullient Mr. Scott, who will have his breakfast at morning tea time; Mr. Tiplady, for the Phys. Ed. department; Mr. Duncan, with the flashest car and the readiest laugh to belie the theory that teachers become poorer and crabbier with age; Mr. Roxburgh, who assisted earnestly; Mr. Cocks, who brought a satorial splendour to the staff room that it sadly needs. (Mr. Talboys, we can't wait much longer!)

But among our most prized acquisitions we must number our imports from the United Kingdom, Messrs. Bennett, Crouch, Preece and Roche, who give every indication of making really worthwhile contributions to the life of the School.

To Mrs. Wilson, who has done much for the development of art in the School, we give our very best wishes in her new position at Menzies College, Wyndham.

And finally, let us wish well to Miss Forbes, who became Mrs. Cox, and Miss Holding, who became Mrs. Cave, and congratulate Mr. Basher on enrolling a small male pupil in his family.

Prefects' Notes

Three of last year's Sixth Form prefects returned to take up the senior positions this year and were joined within a few weeks by new prefects, both Sixth and Seventh Forms, to make the number up to 15. This group was smaller than previous groups by a good proportion (last year's prefects numbered 21), but such a working spirit was established that it was found that we could cope adequately with our duties. Numbers were increased at various times during the year, with the latest additions being three returning Sixth Form prefects to form the nucleus of the 1971 prefects. One working bee was held during the year to try (unsuccessfully) to salvage the shattered remnants of Room 13. The ever-present "honorary" prefects were a constant feature of our room, with much friendly persuasion (i.e. two prefects holding arms, two holding the feet) used to eject these members of the Senior School at regular intervals although, as usual, unsuccessfully!

On the whole, the prefects have managed to cope adequately and well with the obviously difficult job of supervising a school which is beginning to change its attitudes. The prefects are a link with a stricter past, but they have proven that they are not anachronistic and are still necessary.

Coldstream

The hostel this year had a slightly smaller number of boys with only 80 of the places being occupied. Mr. Fitzgerald was manager again and upon his departure the Matron, Mrs. King, assumed the role of manageress. Assisting them throughout the year have been Messrs. Williams, who left for England after Term 2, Clarke, Burgess and Basher, with Mr. Dorizac replacing Mr. Williams. Ten prefects aided the masters in maintaining stability. Alan Collie, Russell Martin, Bruce Stirling, David McPhedran, Doug McBride, Geoff Sutherland, Malcolm Strang, Lloyd Lindsay and Alistair Brown.

In the first term the hostel seemed to run quite well apart from a few problems of breakages. In the second term the Education Board took over the running of the hostel and consequently new rules were made concerning boarders' freedoms. The Matron, as well as very successfully running the hostel, tended to her normal duties—being ably assisted by the new Sub-Matron, Mrs. Swain, to whom the boys would like to extend sincerest thanks for her tolerance and help.

However, other hostel activities suffered. The slot car track seemed to lose the interest of most boys and it was used very little this year.

Coldstream was not so strong in rugby and athletics this year—only two boys of the First XV, D. McBride, and D. McLean, were prominent for the house's athletic performance.

This year in the Interhouse Competition, Coldstream was able to field a team in all sports.

Most popular of all other activities were billiards, table tennis in the winter, and tennis in summer.

Shooting -

The .303 Club began its new season with a small membership. A small group of enthusiastic members joined forces with the Invercargill Rifle Club to shoot competitively for the full season, a marked departure from the normal rushed three- to four-week training period normally allowed in the past.

A team, consisting mainly of ex 1968-69 team members, began the competitive season with a team shoot at Mossburn and astonished their coaches, the other teams and themselves by taking third place in the Open Competition against very experienced teams. Team captain P. D. Buckingham was placed first in the Individual Aggregate, after a shoot-off with an experienced Tapanui rifleman.

But this promising start was not consummated at the team's next team shoot, at Tapanui. This was to be the dress rehearsal for the Masefield Shield Challenge at Trentham in February, with a team of likely candidates for this shoot. However, a placing of twelfth was all that the team could achieve. A few weeks later, the School's riflemen had a chance to redeem themselves in the individual Southland Championships at Gore, and this they did: School rifleman H. R. F. Miller took the Southland C Grade title for this season, and P. D. Buckingham and J. H. Forrest filled second and third places.

Next followed the culmination of many months' effort — the Masefield Challenge at Trentham, in competition against the dozen top shooting schools in New Zealand. In blustery 40 m.p.m. winds, coach Dick Rowley guided the team (R. Bowman, P. Buckingham, R. Miller, J. Waterston) into first equal place at 300 yards, and well as into the lead at 500 yards and 600 yards. The team's top scorers were R. Bowman and R. Miller, each with

MASEFIELD SHIELD SHOOTING TEAM

92 out of 105. For the first time, Southland brought home the magnificently ornamented Masefield Shield, a well-deserved effort and the culmination of five years of shooting in which the School has not slipped below fifth place in New Zealand.

After Trentham, there remained only the individual prize matches in Southland-Otago. The only competition of note was at the Otago Rifle Association's two-day championships held over Easter in Milton. In this competition, P. D. Buckingham took the Otago C Grade Championship. Through an unfortunate mechanical breakdown in his rifle, R. Miller dropped from second placing in C Grade in the last of the six matches.

The team also had grade winners in the I.R.C.

With the introduction this year of a new meeting, the Southland Schoolboys' and Schoolgirls' Championships, the School athletic team had two major meetings to participate in, the other being the annual Otago-Southland Intersecondary Schoolboys' Championships, this year held in Dunedin.

The former was held at Surrey Park in cold, blustery conditions with continuous heavy showers making the day somewhat miserable.

The most successful of the School's contingent was the senior team. Lindsay Walker, a practised field athlete, made the day when he jumped and threw his way into final placings in the High Jump, Discus and Shot Put. In Dunedin, Lindsay also did well in the cold, drizzly conditions to be placed first in the Shot Put and second in the Discus.

championships. P. Buckingham took the B Grade title, with R. Miller second. J. Forrest was runner-up in C Grade. R. Miller also won the club's Long Range Championship.

At the close of the School's most successful season in rifle shooting, grateful and heartfelt thanks are in order for the members of the Invercargill Rifle Club, in particular the Rowley family and Albie Mackay for their efforts on the team's behalf as coaches and mentors, and to Ruben Broomfield for his generous gesture in paying the team's fees to Tapanui.

Under the guidance and patronage of these men, the .303 Club looks forward to another successful season in 1970-71.

In the Senior 800 Metres Paul Ash was placed second with Anthony Poole following in third place, which he also achieved in the 400 Metres event. Other members of the senior team to gain places were Geoff Annear, who was second in the Long Jump, and the Relay team of A. Poole, G. Annear, A. Rankin and R. Thompson gained a second place.

Intermediate athletes of particular note were Chris. Morland, first in the Long Jump, and Wayne Belesky, second in the 100 Metres.

In the remaining two teams, P. Webb gained a well-deserved first in the Junior Shot Put, while I. Sherborne won the Under 14 Shot Put with a record shot of 36ft. 9ins., and R. Fowler won the 80 Metres Hurdles.

And so to the Otago-Southland Championships, held two weeks later. The most successful team at this meeting was our Intermediate team (captain Chris. Morland). Chris gained a well-deserved second in the Long Jump and Wayne Belesky splashed his way into second place in the 100 Metres. Arthur Ballantyne was the most successful member of the Intermediate team. He was not content in winning the 800 Metres in a time of 2min. 2.1sec., but went on to win the 1000 Metres with a fine effort. The team sealed their success later in the afternoon when the Relay team of Morland, Belesky, Bugden and Wohlers won the 4 x 100 Metres Relay.

In the junior team J. Ballam and P. Morris were placed in the Junior Hurdles and 400 Metres respectively—a good effort by both boys.

I. Sherborne, of the Under 14 team, gained a deserved first place in the Shot Put, while team-mate R. Fowler fought his way into the placings of the 80 Metres Hurdles.

The senior team was the one with the least number of successes. The only athletes to gain places were Lindsay Walker and Paul Ash who crossed the line to capture third place in the 800 Metres.

The club wishes to convey their thanks to the staff members who assisted the team and the gallant few who turned up at the three Sunday working bees to help paint the section of the grandstand allocated to us. Their efforts were much appreciated.

While a bulldozer is rarely used as a symbol of artistic enterprise, it seems fitting this year, since our pre-fab trembles on the brink of vast mounds and ditches that auger the rise of a new and splendid art room. Rather sadly, I won't be there to enjoy the new surrounds with the art students, but I wish them abounding creativity within its shining walls. Despite the rigours of our prefab, hot in summer, cold and afloat in winter, despite our stacks of wet paintings, lack of storage and mopping-up smears, a power of good ideas and good paintings have come out of our old art room, over the years it's been home to the art boys.

Some of our more interesting ventures this year have been playing host to U.E. Art students from the other city schools for an evening in the Library, where we had an exhibition of our own U.E. Art work, along with demonstrations of varied techniques, slides, discussion and exchange of ideas. The New Zealand Forest Service's recently published calendar contained two Southland Boys' High paintings, those of Ron Buchanan and Brian Campbell, of which we were proud. This was followed by the success of Mark de la Mare and Bryan Poole, coming first and second respectively in the Otago Polytechnic Centennial Awards for secondary school pupils. Both boys received their prizes, a $50 and a $30 paint set, from the hands of the Governor-General, Sir Arthur Porritt, at a gala occasion in the Dunedin Art Gallery. "I have two school blazers, one which fits and one which doesn't. Guess which one I packed," said Bryan just minutes before he shook Sir Arthur's hand, revealing a short blue sleeve and a long white one! However, later Bryan sold nearly $100 worth of paintings from the Anderson Park Spring Exhibition, a good start to owning three blazers.

The Young Contemporaries' Art Exhibition was well supported by our art boys, including some accurate drawing by Neil McDowell who has put in some dedicated work towards U.E. Art studies. Also encouraging was the work of ex-Southland Boys' High art pupils—Bruce Edgar, now at Canterbury Art School, was guest sculptor, Don Mackenzie had exhibited some mature work, as also did Russell Hoffman.

A new era begins with a new art room, and my good wishes go to all who paint in it. I look back with many good memories—our failures have held lessons, and our successes encouragement. I did plan to get a palette and on the School Crest in place of that football. Oh well, it's been a good try!

QSO's were made with ZL4OP, 4AT, 4KZ (Rose-dale Intermediate School), 4DG, 4DH, 4GA, 4GQ, 4NY, 4HU (James Hargest High School), 3RB and ZL3ABI (Hagley High School, Christchurch). Old Boy R. D.

Branks kindly donated several crystals which he obtained in the United States on a stopover while piloting a 747 Jet. The pre-war receiver, which we have on loan, is in desperate need of replacement by a modern set.

Once again the School has had a successful year as far as chess is concerned. Most heartening has been the institution of School Chess Club with an active membership. New sets have been purchased and Room 9 has turned into a bustling centre of chess activity. Earlier in the year the School defeated Marist in a chess match by 10 points to 6.

After elimination rounds, the School Chess Championship was contested on a round-robin tournament between finalists. Results from this tournament were: R. Thomson and A. Pomeroy, 2 points (out of a possible 3); P. Paris,  $\frac{1}{2}$  points; G. Thomson,  $\frac{1}{2}$  point. A match was played between A. Pomeroy and G. Thomson, the winner becoming the new School champion.

The Junior School Championship was won by G. Paris.

In outside competitions, representatives of the School had excellent results. At the Otago-Southland Schoolboys' Tournament in May, A. Pomeroy and R. Thomson shared first place, and P. Paris came third. This success was followed up at the National Schoolboys' Tournament in August where A. Pomeroy came second and P. Paris fourth. The Southland Championship was again dominated by pupils of the School when P. Paris took first place and A. Pomeroy came second.

The members of the School Chess Club would like to thank Mr. Berridge for his support of chess in the School, and Mr. G. M. Williams, of Dunedin, who so tirelessly promoted schoolboys' chess throughout the South Island.

1970 National Schoolboys' Chess Tournament

In August, the National Schoolboys' Chess Tournament was held in Christchurch with eight competitors—two from each of the main centres. The two representatives for the Otago-Southland district were Phillip Paris and Arthur Pomeroy.

Pre-tournament favourite was Paul Sarbett, of Auckland, the current North Island Open champion and winner of the two preceding National Schoolboys' Championships. He immediately broke away from the field with three wins, and although he conceded a draw to A. Pomeroy in the fourth round, he proceeded to win his remaining games.

Clearly the battle was now for second place. Pomeroy had moved the wrong piece in a superior position in the first round and had to concede a draw, following it up with four more draws which hardly helped his chances. Phillip Paris had a good win in Round 1, but then lost to Sarbett.

In Round 5, P. Paris sacrificed against Baker for an attack which never eventuated and lost. Both Craig and Pomeroy had wins—A. Pomeroy's first win so far! The final round was crucial. Sarbett quickly annihilated Baker, and now the fight was on to see who would join Baker in second place. The games S. Chin v. A. Pomeroy and R. Craig v. Paris were being played next to one another, but after three hours' play, no-one could have predicted the outcome. Then came a furious time scramble; when the dust subsided the Southland players had been victorious.

And so the tournament was over. P. Sarbett had won the tournament with  $6\frac{1}{2}$  points out of 7 (6 wins, 1 draw); second equal were A. Pomeroy (5 draws, 2 wins) and C. Baker (3 wins, 1 loss, 3 draws), and P. Paris showed fourth place with R. Craig on  $3\frac{1}{2}$  points. This is clearly the best result yet achieved by players from the School, and we can hope that further successes will follow.

(As P. Sarbett is ineligible to play, A. Pomeroy and C. Baker will be the two representatives of the New Zealand Chess Federation at the Australian Schoolboys' Championship in January.)

The club met during the first and third terms on Monday and Tuesday mornings from 8 a.m. to 8.35 a.m. Sessions were held at the Coldstream pool. The average attendance was about 16 and most of these were Third and Fourth Formers. Twelve boys are sitting their Bronze Medallion at the end of this year.

Our thanks to Mr. Tiplady for the help and guidance he has given us.

Life-saving

Debating Club

We started this year with one of the strongest and most experienced teams the School has had for a long time. This, together with a number of enthusiastic juniors, seemed to promise us a very good season.

Our first encounter was the inter-school contest against Otago. The School team—Gray (leader), Waldron and Pomeroy—were forced to defend the negative of the difficult subject: "That Trade Unionism is detrimental to modern industrial society." We went into the debate very confidently, but we became so entangled in rebuttal and in the frivolous interjections of the other team that the presentation of our own material was hampered. We lost by a very small margin: the closeness of the contest is indicated by the fact that L. Gray, while captain of the losing team, was still best speaker.

As though to compensate for this effort, the same team came back strongly against Waitaki B.H.S. at Oamaru three weeks later. Taking the negative of the subject "That a man cannot get rich honestly", all three of the team gave of their very best, against a fairly weak effort from Waitaki, and we won by the huge margin of 50 points, with L. Gray again as best speaker. As a result of this encounter, we brought a magnificent trophy back to School.

By this time, the Competitions season was almost upon us. We entered a record number of four teams, two in the open (adult) section and two in the secondary schools. In the eliminations of the open section, the School's No. 1 team of Gray and Waldron, for a long time dominant in Competitions debating, went easily through to the finals, while the No. 2 team of Pomeroy and Jones was very narrowly beaten by the Woodlands Country Girls' Club. In the secondary schools' section, both teams, Naylor and Gordon, and Homer and Silcock, went through to the final, with the former team finally victorious. All these boys show tremendous promise and leave us confident that the School will have a powerful team for many years to come.

In the final of the open section, Gray and Waldron were able to defeat the Country Girls' Clubs, giving the School a clean sweep of Competitions debating.

We are confident of equally successful results against James Hargest, Girls' High, and St. Catherine's.

The team was a great credit to the School this year. Gray retained his unique style, making him best speaker of every debate he entered. Waldron, after a shaky start against Otago, reached a peak in the Competitions debates. Pomeroy remained the mainstay of the team's rebuttal, winning many a debate with his sarcasm and wit.

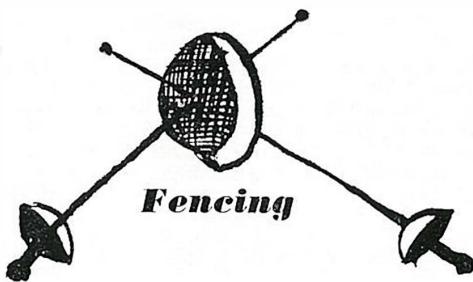

Finally, we must give our heartfelt thanks to Mr. Jones, without whose help these results would not have been possible. Thanks are also due especially to Mr. McIntosh, and to Mr. Berridge and Mrs. Gray for their help throughout the year.

At the beginning of the year, twelve members returned. The membership later stabilised at ten.

This year it was Otago's turn to come down to Invercargill for the Inter-Secondary School Championships in July. Nine members of our club took part, with Ian Brooks, winner of the School Championship, and Greg Watson sharing third place.

Once again the club extends its thanks to our coach, Mr. Ray Nichol, without whose support the club could not run. Thanks are also extended to the other members of the Invercargill Swords Club for their services.

The club looks forward to a larger membership next year.

Tramping Club

The School Tramping Club, which was started in the first term, was under the supervision of Mr. Deacon, with some assistance from Mr. Clarke.

The first outing was to Port Craig, on the week-end of 14th March. Right from the start this expedition seemed doomed. The heavy rain on the afternoon of departure triumphed over us on the first night. Even Mr. Clarke's landrover could not cross one particularly swift stream en route, so camp was made on the spot. The following day, Saturday, everything went smoothly and the Port Craig School was reached in mid-afternoon. Search and rescue men helped us out while returning on the Monday, and thus ended our first tramp.

The next tramp was to the Hokonuis, starting a few miles north of the Y.M.C.A. camp. The main aim of this expedition was to get more experience in compass work.

There have been two day hikes since then, the first up the Longwoods at the back of Ermedale and the other to the blowholes, on the way to Port Craig.

The club went on a five-day outing during the last week of the August holidays. The base camp was the hostel at Deep Cove, and the surrounding territory was explored, as this could be a possible site for the school adventure camps.

The club has had some recent additions giving us an active membership of ten. It had been planned to keep the club small as there are some problems with transport and leadership.

A.F.S.

The American Field Service played a larger role in the School this year. In July-August the School participated in the provincial raffle to raise extra funds. About $600 was actually raised in the School and to this, thanks must go to Mr. Waterston, P. Christmas and B. Sherborne for their organisation. A larger number of applicants sought the Scholarship this year but of these six Sixth Formers only three were finally chosen to represent the Southland Branch. These were P. Christmas, N. McDowell and B. Stirling.

Lachlan McKay, from the Seventh Form, was selected as an A.F.S. Scholar for 1970. He is attending Frederick High School in Maryland, U.S.A. He will return to N.Z. after spending twelve months abroad.

Library Notes

Because the city has a well-stocked fiction library, it is becoming the function of the School Library to provide reference books, particularly of a type more specialised than the City Library can supply. Added to this is the increasing importance of basic resource material for the revised Social Studies schemes in the Junior School. Consequently the bulk of this year's Library grant has been spent on the non-fiction section.

For those who enjoy being baffled by statistics, the number of books in the Library is about 13,000. Each year about 500 new titles are added to the shelves and the same number of books is repaired. Outdated and badly damaged volumes are culled because space is so limited. A few books vanish every year but usually these are returned by parents or conscience-stricken old boys.

In all respects this year has been a successful one for the Library in spite of some changes among the senior boys when the Head Librarian left. Few people realise that the Library could not function without the efforts of the boys who give of their time to assist as librarians. In particular, many of the junior boys make a tremendous contribution and this is very much appreciated. Several senior boys are leaving this year and for their efforts over the past years we are grateful.

Finally, my special thanks are due to Mrs. Gray, who has as usual done far more towards the running of the Library than is required of her. Without her the Library would not be the same.

Parent-Teacher Association

The annual meeting was held in April and the following members were elected to the Executive:—

President, Mr. D. S. McLennan; Vice-President, Mr. F. W. Mark; Secretary, Mr. A. T. Wilson; Treasurer, Mr. B. Hensley; Auditor, Mr. J. G. Henderson.

Committee: Messrs. J. R. Lindsay, N. W. Fraser, K. W. Jakeway, W. I. Bowman, A. Manson, R. G. Stewart, Mesdames A. S. Alsweiler, J. G. Sherborne, J. Matheson, J. E. Wilson, H. Bourchier, W. McKnight, K. V. Drummond, W. S. Ramsay, Rex Watson, A. Frew, Ian Hay, R. C. Bunton.

Teachers' Representatives: Messrs. J. C. Alabaster, V. B. Bemrose, T. C. Berridge.

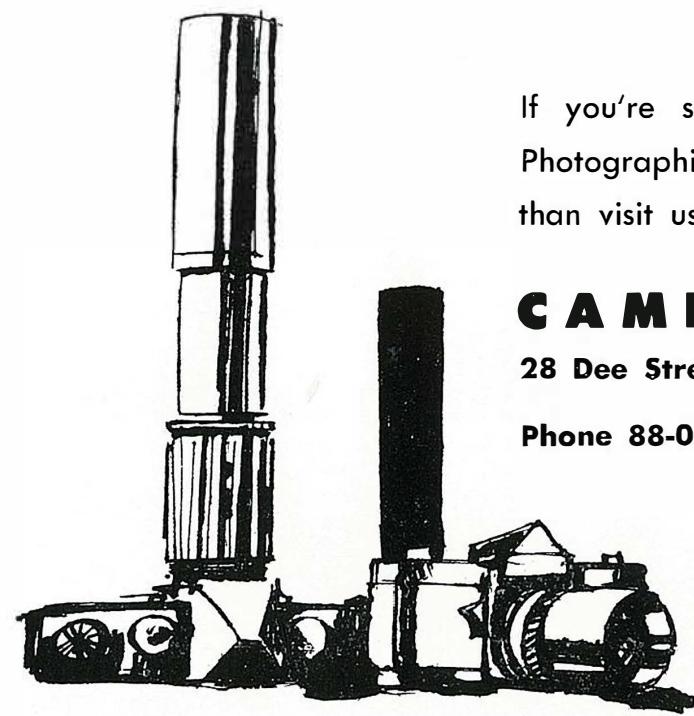

During the year the Executive had been actively working in trying to establish a canteen at the School. With the help of Mr. Cornwell and his staff, it was suggested that the bandroom could be utilised. It was discussed with the Property Supervisor, who felt it was a reasonable proposition. Although not entirely desirable, it would establish a canteen and should bring profits, which in five years' time would be available for something better. The operating of it would not be before the second term of 1971.

The system that was adopted during the year in collecting subscriptions has proved to be most satisfactory.

Following the annual meeting, Mr. J. W. Fraser, Chairman of the Southland High Schools' Board, spoke.

Three Executive meetings were held during the year and once again in July separate meetings of parents of boys of the Junior and Senior Schools were held in consecutive weeks. These meetings were well attended and it is obvious that the teachers making themselves available for discussions with parents on these occasions is greatly appreciated.

Mr. T. M. Comer, District Child Welfare Officer, spoke at our November meeting on his trip overseas. This meeting was very well attended. An appreciation of the help given by the ladies of the Committee at meetings and school functions should be placed on record. The Committee is indebted to Mr. Cornwell for his co-operation and assistance at all times and indeed to all the teachers for their help at general meetings.

Rugby

FIRST FIFTEEN

Captain: R. W. Bunton Coach: Mr. Williams

A mixture of youth and inexperience would define the pre-season mixture of players that assembled for the trials. The trials themselves weren't particularly inspiring but a few rays of hope shone through: the relative mature approach to rugby displayed by McKechnie, the surprising strength and fitness of G. Houston, and the obvious improvement displayed by Chris. Morland, one of the four capped players who returned this year.

The many weaknesses were obvious in our first club game of the year against Marist, the School narrowly winning by 11 points to 8. From this point the team began its long build-up for the first inter-school of the season, that against Otago Boys'. Even though the School received resounding defeats against O.B.H.S. and Waitaki the team spirit remained at a high level.

It was this that held the team together during this rather barren patch and enabled it to draw against King's and Tauranga Boys' High and win against Timaru. From the antics of Wilson in the pavilion or the singing of "blue" rugby songs on the bus, the team remained a happy, closely-knit unit.

The team won the Third Grade Competition after defeating Marist in the final. Other games included a seven-a-side win over Papakura High School during the May holidays and two losses to the "Varsity Old Boys".

Record	Played	Lost	Drew	Won

The team wishes to express its gratitude to coach Mr. C. Williams for his time, invaluable coaching and devotion shown towards the team during its successful 1970 season.

Critiques

RICHARD BUNTON—lock (Captain): Played his best rugby in the second part of the season. Strong and vigorous, he was the outstanding forward against King's and Timaru. Kicked over 50 points during the season. Led the team by example.

CHRIS MORLAND — half-back (Vice-Captain): Much stronger this year. A nimble mover with ball in hand, he has developed an effective "dummy". A match-winner.

ARTHUR BALLANTYNE — tight-head prop: The fittest forward and, pound for pound, one of the best. Scrummed well against some formidable opposition.

PHIL PARIS—hooker: The best hooker the School has had for a number of years. Held his own in all inter-schools. Particularly mobile and effective in general play.

GEOFF HOUSTON—loose-head prop: The "find" of the season. Strong in scrums but needs to concentrate on developing line-out play at No. 2. Will be a decided asset next year. Outstanding against Tauranga.

PHIL JONES—lock: Still raw and inexperienced in many respects but showed admirable enthusiasm. Has surprising speed but must remember that rugby is an 80-minute game.

ATHOL POOLE—side row: Light and fast. Played his best rugby towards the end of the season. Adept at initiating play from loose ball.

JOHN CUTHILL—No. 8: A good team man. Line-out play did not develop as expected. Extremely fast.

CHRIS WILSON: Plagued by injuries. When he applied himself, played some intelligent rugby.

MURRAY JONES—side row: An injury-wrecked season and was sorely missed, particularly from the inter-school games. Played his best rugby going forward.

RUSSELL MARTIN—utility: Did not play many games but when called upon acquitted himself quite well.

BRIAN McKECHNIE—first five-eighth: Showed a lot of promise and will improve even more. Handled and passed well. Scored over 150 points for the season. Played good rugby against King's and Timaru.

BRIAN THOMPSON—second five-eighth: The king-pin of the backline. Determined and incisive runner. His experience was sadly missed against Otago and Waitaki.

RUSSELL WEEDS—centre: Although playing in a "foreign" position made considerable progress. Had a good inside break but must improve his passing. Resolute defender.

WAYNE BELESKY—wing: Fast and strong but handling lapses often spoil his performances. Line-out throwing needs constant practice.

KEITH LAIDLAW—wing: Has found his true place. Fast and elusive. Scored a good try against King's. Top try scorer with 23 tries.

ALAN RANKIN—wing: Did not play many games. Extremely fast. Acquitted himself quite well.

IAN MCPHERSON—centre: An elusive runner who made some outstanding breaks. Inclined to catch the ball one-handed and consequently his play suffered from handling lapses.

GEOFF MURDOCH—full-back: The epitome of courage. A steady player who shows promise in this position. A solid last line of defence.

MICHAEL MARR—utility: A strong player but was never really fit. Defended well against Waitaki.

DAVE RAMSAY—prop: Heavy, strong, but slow around the field, he will form part of a solid front row next year.

GAME REPORTS

v. O.B.H.S.—6-21

Winning the toss, School chose to play into the sun, wind and uphill. From the start things went wrong. Otago Boys rattled the School's "defence" and scored after one minute of play. Then Brian Thompson was seriously injured and had to leave the field. O.B.H.S. applied the pressure to score again. Then came a period where School looked like holding its own. Bunton landed a 45-yard penalty to make the score 8-3 at the change-over. Another 45-yard penalty by Bunton brought the score to 8-6, but then the size, experience and mobility of the O.B.H.S. pack began to tell and School sagged, allowing O.B.H.S. to go to a 21-6 victory.

v. Waitaki—9-34

Played on a hard, fast ground, this game proved to be a disaster for School. As happened against O.B.H.S., Waitaki scored in the first minutes and kept on applying the pressure. The score, however, would tend to flatter Waitaki as School made many attacking sorties into Waitaki territory. At half time School had six points—two penalties from Bunton. A good passing rush by the forwards saw Houston score a good try near the posts but McKechnie failed with the easy conversion. This didn't stop the inevitable, however, and Waitaki won 34-9. Poor tackling by the School backs was a major weakness.

v. Timaru—9-0

Played on a sticky ground, School won the only one of the traditional four inter-schools for the year. Fresh from near victory against King's, School never really looked in trouble. The forwards again played well; the backs maintained the task of penetration displayed against King's. A McKechnie goal put School three points in the lead and increased this to six points when Morland ran around the side of the scrum to score.

6-0 at half time wasn't a big lead, but School never looked like losing its grip on its game, the seal being set when Bunton landed an acutely angled penalty from 35 yards. The dedication of the team was rewarded in a well-deserved win for the School by 9-0.

v. King's—6-6

Played on a mud patch, this proved to be the most entertaining of the inter-schools. School went right on to the attack with a "Willie Away", only a dropped pass but School replied with a superb try from Laidlaw. Working the "Willie Away", School won the ball, which was flicked through the backline for Laidlaw to score in the corner. A penalty from McKechnie put the School in front by 6-3. King's then scored a try which was not converted. Score 6-6 at half time. This was a better performance and School were unlucky not to win.

v. Tauranga

During the school holidays a rather mixed contingent of First and Second Fifteen players met a solid-looking team from Tauranga College. The day was a very warm 64 deg. and School played with the sun in the first half. With our new combinations the team had trouble settling down. Despite repeated attacks by School, we entered the second half trailing by 5 points to nil. By now both teams were feeling the effects of the sun, but despite our handicap the School scored a magnificent try. The ball went out the backline to L. McPherson who sent it infield again. The combination between the forwards and backs resulted in Laidlaw finally touching down. McKechnie converted to make the score 5-5 and thus ended an evenly-fought game.

Inter-school Record

Against Otago Boys' High School—lost 0-27

In this July game at Dunedin, the team's forwards were decidedly outplayed and as a result the backs were given little ball to play with. Otago had a very mobile pack of forwards and from this the team learned a valuable lesson.

Against Waitaki Boys' High School—lost 3-21

This game, played in Oamaruvian sunshine, was more even with both packs of forwards evenly matched. However, the Waitaki backs broke through a weak defence and in the latter stages of the game were decisive.

Wealeans provided some penetration to score a fine try in the first half.

Against Gore High School—lost 0-31

In the initial stages the School looked capable of winning, however, the defences of the backs accounted mostly for the final result. Gore scored five magnificent passing tries all of which were converted.

The Team's Record

After starting disastrously—losing 3-8 to Old Boys—the team and Mr. Fitzgerald staged a comeback which earned third place behind J.H.H.S. and Marist College in the S.R.F.U. Fourth Grade Competition.

I. Morton played well at full-back, but no player was really exceptional except I. McPherson, who was promoted to the First Fifteen.

In the forwards, Scott was particularly reliable as was L. Noble at hooker. G. J. Colhoun was of immense advantage in the line-outs.

The team thanks Mr. Fitzgerald for his coaching and contribution to the team's good team-spirit.

FIFTH GRADE

A Team

Captain: R. Calder      Coach: Mr. Bemrose

The team: G. D. Sutherland, M. C. Clay, P. G. Bugden, W. J. Fraser, P. J. McIntyre, A. W. Collie, S. A. Fleming, I. G. Singleton, R. P. Calder, B. W. McKenzie, M. L. Slaughter, O. R. Johnstone, R. J. Swan, R. G. Bourchier, B. S. Craig, K. S. Burden.

This team had a reasonably successful season, losing to only one team, James Hargest. In most of our games the forwards dominated the lineouts, scrums and rucks and the backs made good use of most ball.

In midfield, Johnstone made some good breaks but his handling often let him down. McKenzie, after playing his first few games on the wing, adapted ably to the first five-eighth position.

In the forwards, the loose forward trio of Collic, Singleton and Fleming provided good cover and hustled the opposition's inside backs well.

Several players participated in the Town Fifth Grade team and S. A. Fleming represented School in the Southland Under 16 team.

The team would like to thank Mr. Bemrose for his valuable time spent in coaching and supporting us throughout the season.

B Team

Captain: R. Blackie Coach: Mr. P. Williams

Unfortunately, due to a lack of Fifth Grade players, only two teams participated in the Southland Fifth Grade Competition. The team was not particularly successful although they occasionally gave fine performances and played consistently well throughout the season. Fortunately, former members of Fifth Grade A, Flaus, McKenzie and Riddell, strengthened our team near the end of the competition and a combination of players from Fifth Grade B and the Sixth Grade played in the annual inter-school match against Lumsden. The game was narrowly won by Lumsden 11-9.

Three members of the team were selected for the Town Fifth Grade trials. They were Blackie, Broad and Eade.

The team wishes to thank Mr. Williams for the valuable time he surrendered throughout the season.

The team was: Twiss, Greig, Haagen, Schmidt, Flaus, Frampton, Blackie, Richards, Eade, Tait, Broad, Riddell, O'Connor, Lindsay, McCrostie, Noble, Colicott, McKenzie, Weeds, Insull.

SIXTH GRADE

A Team

Captain: W. A. Cambridge Coach: Mr. Scott

The 6A had a reasonably successful season. Although losing five out of nine games it was third overall.

The team: K. J. Hilderbrand, P. P. Miller, S. G. Thomson, A. B. Littlejohn, R. C. Guise, W. A. Cambridge (Captain), D. W. Cook, R. G. Botting, R. W. Haselmore, W. R. Hilton, G. G. Macara, R. L. Patterson, G. K. Stevenson, B. G. Bennett (Vice-Captain) and M. G. Little. As a whole it played extremely well. Most credit goes to the forwards led by hooker Bennett and with the determination of Macara, Stevenson, Botting and Hilton provided a very strong pack. Of the backs, Cook showed great skill and initiative while Guise was a dependable player. The team thanks Mr. Scott for his coaching and support throughout the season.

B Team

Captain: P. Smith Coach: Mr. Scott

The team: Von Tunzleman, Meager, Coleman, Downie, Morris, Murdoch, Wilson, Engel, Service, Shepherd, Richards, Humphries, Mark, Woods, Du Mez, Willow, MacEwan, Walker.

The team played good rugby although they often took a while to settle down, this being a deciding factor in many games. We sometimes had difficulty in fielding a full team, but games were played in a good spirit on both sides.

The forwards were generally the superior team combination and they generated good drive and cohesion throughout the season.

Our thanks to the coach, Mr. Scott, for his enthusiasm throughout the season.

SEVENTH GRADE

A Team

Captain: D. W. Hamill Coach: R. Burgess

Although hampered throughout the season by lack of players, injuries, and sickness we had a reasonable season with 8 wins and 7 losses.

M. Scheele was a strong and determined runner on the wing.

M. Stevenson, playing at centre, was a solid tackler and also made many good breaks.

L. McCallum and B. Everett led the way in the forwards, playing good rugby in both tight and loose.

We would like to thank the members of the Seventh B team that helped us out and also our coach, Mr. Burgess, for the time he gave in coaching us.

The team: D. W. Hamill, L. McCallum, G. Evans, B. Everett, R. Mead, D. White, J. McCormack, B. Hagen, W. Crawford, P. Wilkins, M. Bell, R. Fowler, M. Stevenson, M. Scheele, W. Spence, R. McIntosh, I. Brown.

B Team

Captain: L. J. Aylward Coach: Mr. A. D. Deacon

The team played good football throughout the season and showed consistent sportsmanship. The results of the matches played were 1 win and 11 losses out of 12 games. Even though the team lost the majority of the games, the team spirit did not suffer. The team very much appreciated the help of our coach, Mr. Deacon, and would like to thank him for his efforts.

The members of the team were: I. Boniface, K. J. Evans, B. P. Fowler, R. J. Buchanan, K. G. Harper, C. R. Horton, K. G. Lindsay, M. G. Nicholl, W. L. Popham, C. P. Young, I. D. Hay, S. G. Wells, S. G. Hart, J. F. McCrostie, B. J. McIntosh, B. A. Brown, L. J. Aylward, D. A. Mahon, K. A. Gough.

EIGHTH GRADE

A Team

Captain: C. A. J. Gadd. Coach: Mr. Berridge

Won 12, drew 0, lost 0.

Points for 320, against 3.

Team: C. A. J. Gadd (Captain), T. J. Wilson (Vice-Captain), C. W. Manson, M. I. Rankin, G. G. McAuliffe, G. H. Lietze, B. L. Howard, R. A. Ward, W. D. Fairbanks, R. E. Logan, B. J. Gilbertson, L. A. Gray, K. R. Blair, S. D. Batchelor, A. A. Cundall, B. K. Jones, B. W. Vallance.

The most outstanding players for the year were B. K. Jones, who kicked over 100 points, and C. A. J. Gadd and B. L. Howard for their ability. On behalf of the team I would like to thank Mr. Berridge for his outstanding coaching throughout, for we had a very successful year.

B Team

Captain: J. Aitken Coach: Mr. Berridge

This team had the ability of the A team but never used it. After a shaky first round in which all four games were lost, the team began to improve, winning two games in the last two rounds. The team was still improving at the end of the second round but began to deteriorate during the last round. The last round was a difficult round because of the lack of players. The team played 12 games, won 2 and lost 10.

The team: J. Aitken, M. Alabaster, R. McLean, P. James, I. Grafton, N. Skelt, B. Winsloe, W. McKnight, A. Hogg, N. Bouchier, D. Shields, S. Gould, P. McKinney, A. Ferguson, D. Russell, A. Pannet, G. Paris, P. Brahm, A. Wilson, C. Clay, D. Burgess, M. Christie, E. Roberts, A. Mavor, J. Trotter, J. Etchells.

Hockey

Captain: H. Paterson Coach: Mr. R. James

The First Eleven started this year with eight of last year's players returning, although one of these, A. Carr, left school in the first half of the season.

The team once again played in Senior Grade and although it was only placed fourth in the competition, it often gave the older and more experienced senior teams some close contests.

The following players were selected for Southland's 1970 representative teams:—

Senior Men: G. Patterson.

Colts: H. Paterson, G. Burns, D. Balfour, L. Gray, B. Sherborne, R. Smith, G. Patterson, G. Annear and R. Neilson.

The entire team was once again included in the Southland Secondary Schools' team.

This year the team did not travel to any tournament in the August holidays, but some of its members travelled to Dunedin and played for a combined Southland and Eastern Southland Colts' team in a National Colts' Competition.

Once again the availability of competent reserves from the Second XI aided the team tremendously. These boys, G. Johnstone, N. Riley, K. Sandry, G. Fallow and K. Rayner, gained valuable experience and should prove an asset to the team next year.

The lack of real success of the team was due to the fact that the forwards and the backs lacked cohesion. Another facet of play which caused a good deal of concern was the apparent lack of finishing attacks off properly. Time and time again the team would make a concerted effort and attack well for sometimes the entire length of the ground, and then the attacks would come to pieces in our opponent's circle.

To Mr. James, our coach, we owe a debt of gratitude for encouraging us to master our faults.

Inter-school Games

- v. Otago Boys', won 5-1
- v. King's High, lost 7-1
- v. Gore High, won 3-1
- v. S.G.H.S., won 6-1

The team's record for the year was:

Games played	21
Games won	12
Games drawn	2
Goals for	20
Goals against	48

The Players

H. PATERSON (Captain), centre half: The mainstay of the half line. A resolute defender and the initiator of many attacking moves. As Captain he shouldered his responsibilities with real credit.

G. BURNS, right half: Showed enthusiasm for the game and always looked for more work. His stickwork improved greatly during the season.

D. BALFOUR, left half: Playing a demanding position, David was instrumental in breaking up a great deal of our opponents' attacks.

B. SHERBORNE, left back: An aggressive player, Brian was the mainstay of our defence.

R. NEILSON, right back: Perhaps overshadowed a little by Brian, Roger has used his trapping to great advantage and saved the day many times in the face of concerted attacks.

L. GRAY, goalie: A newcomer to the 1st XI, Lewis improved when he became accustomed to the more aggressive style of the Senior Grade.

G. PATTERSON, right wing: A dynamic attacking forward, Geoff can look forward to many years of representative hockey.

R. SMITH, centre forward: Enthusiastic and very fit, he made many slashing runs down the field. Always looked for an opportunity to score.

D. ANNEAR, left inside: Coped well in a difficult position. Needs to develop more speed and a sense of purpose in his play.

G. ANNEAR, right inside: His speed proved a real asset on occasions. Improved stickwork and a better sense of anticipation would make him a prolific goal-scorer.

A. MORISON, left wing: Settled down to play some good hockey. He did everything required of him.

SECOND ELEVEN

Captain: N. S. Riley

The team started this year quite successfully with wins over Southland College A and Tuis B and hard and well-fought games against Hargest A. However, due to the loss of B. Neilson and a loss of interest among some of the players, the team suffered accordingly in the latter part of the season. Apart from this, the team played in a spirited and encouraging manner.

Our thanks go to M. Connor who gave us much of his valuable time and worthy advice.

The team was: A. Wilson, G. Cowie, G. Johnstone (Vice-Captain), N. Riley (Captain), R. Barnett, G. Fallow, C. Hay, K. Sandri, K. Raynor, A. Labruyere, R. Stewart.

THIRD ELEVEN

Twelve matches were arranged for the season and the team won six games and lost six games. Graham Condliffe captained the team and the other regular match players were:

A. Pont, P. Adamson, N. Coaley, R. Blick, R. Frederic, B. McClure, R. Patton, R. Hockey, P. Blomfield, L. Henderson, G. Jensen, W. Ballantyne, B. Sleeman.

Thanks go to Mrs. Cox for her valuable time spent coaching and attending our Saturday games.

FIRST HOCKEY ELEVEN

Back row: G. D. Burns, G. W. Patterson, B. K. Sherborne, G. J. Annear, R. A. Neilson, L. S. Gray
Front row: A. J. Morison, D. E. Annear, H. D. Paterson (Capt.), D. L. Balfour, R. H. M. Smith

FIRST ELEVEN

Captain: L. W. Sharp Coach: Mr. Vercauteren

The First Eleven for 1970 was the strongest for a number of years. It was, however, unfortunate that we lost such a large number of players. This not only weakened the team but also hindered team-work and the understanding that is essential in any soccer team.

The team won one inter-school match and drew another, with 14 goals scored for and 19 goals scored against us. In the local competition, School defeated Gore Wanderers (twice), Queen's Park, and drew with Queen's Park and Waihopai. We had some very close results in other games and were desperately unlucky at times.

The finest game of the season was undoubtedly the Chatham Cup game against Waihopai. To quote the "Southland Sports" headlines, High School "was robbed". It was a very wet ground and after being a goal down within 10 minutes, School came back with a tremendous fire and by half time was 3-1 up. It was soon 3-2 but a good goal by Graeme Parmenter made it 4-2 with 15 minutes to play. Then School gave away its second penalty in the match and Waihopai followed soon after with another goal which made it 4 goals each at full time. During extra time both teams scored, but we were forced to give two corners away which proved our downfall. The general teamwork and grim determination that was evident in this game showed the great potential that this team had. This performance was the most heartening the team had. It was a pity it came at the beginning of the season.

The School's record was as follows: Out of 19 games played, four were won, twelve were lost, and three were drawn. Fifty-one goals were scored by us and ninety-three against us.

The top scorers were: G. Parmenter with 13, S. Grant with 9, R. Malcolm with 9, S. Hutchby with 8, and L. Smith with 5.

Players who represented Southland in the Under 16's were S. Grant, G. Parmenter, G. Alsweiler, R. Hughes, R. Malcolm, S. Erickson.

Critiques

P. ASH (goalkeeper): Filled the position of goalkeeper when we were desperate for one. Played some solid games for us—in particular against Waihopai and King's but a failure to gain sufficient length with many of his clearing kicks needs to be remedied.

G. ALSWEILER (right-back): Sound on defence. Graeme tried hard all season. With more practice at more accurate kicking he will become a fine full-back.

S. ERECKSON (centre-back): A youngster in his first season in the 1st XV. Very dependable on defence. Will be an invaluable asset in the seasons to come.

L. SHARP (left-back), Captain: A very conscientious captain and a good example to the rest of the team. Throughout the season Lennox was very sound on defence especially when it came to tackling and accurate passing.

R. HUGHES (right-half): Raymond, after being a reserve for most of last season, played all year in the half line. Although lacking in size, his ball control and soccer ability meant that he could outplay many players in our competition.

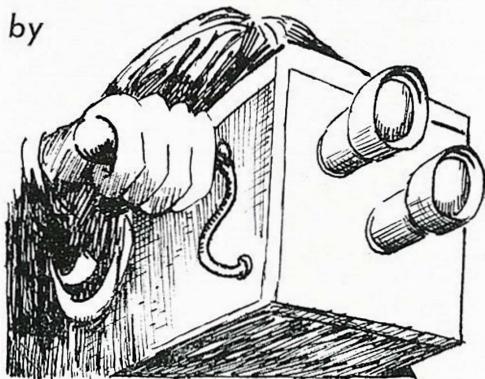

R. MALCOLM (centre-half): A fine player whose football sense and ability is such that he was one of the most powerful and dangerous players in our team. An excellent attacker and defender and a tireless worker.

P. ERECKSON (left-half): Joined the team after O.B.H.S. game. Always gave of his best. Needs to think about his game and must practise better ball control.

S. BURGESS (left-half): Played his best games while at centre-back. A good defender and attacker but needs to develop more teamwork. A solid season.

FIRST SOCCER ELEVEN

Back row: S. Grant, I. McAuliffe, R. Y. Hughes

Middle row: B. G. Berg, A. R. Malcolm, S. R. Burgess, S. K. Erickson, Mr. J. F. N. Vercauteran (Coach)

S. GRANT (right-wing): Stuart's play was a feature of the team. His speed and ability to easily beat his defenders meant that he was a danger to any opposing team. He will be an invaluable asset next year.

L. SMITH (inside-left), Vice-Captain: Lester's experience and ability again proved successful this season. He has only played in this position later on in the season and proved to be a danger to opposition defence.

G. PARMENTER (inside-right): Top goal-scorer for the season. An invaluable player. His ability to beat defenders was instrumental in many of our attacks. A very potent force in any team. Best inter-school performances were against Linwood and Timaru.

I. McAULIFFE (left-wing): Brought into the side midway through the season and tried hard. His size meant that he could not play with confidence but he should, in the seasons to come, be of good value to the team.

INTER-SCHOOL GAMES

June 17: v. O.B.H.S.—lost 9-5

(Played in Dunedin)

Having been decisively beaten by Otago last year and with the home team playing ten of that eleven, Otago were expected to have an easy game against us. But this was not the case, as School for the most part played attacking and attractive football. The first half ended with the score at 3-1 to Otago, but shortly afterwards it was 3-2 and we were in a good position to beat Otago. However, Otago proved too strong in the second half and came out deserved winners. For School, Ross Malcolm, Stephen Hutchby and Bruce Collins played solidly. It was unfortunate that some members were not up to their usual form, for if they had been anywhere near top form the result could have been quite different. Scorers for School were S. Hutchby (3), R. Malcolm and S. Grant.

July 1: v. Linwood—lost 0-5

Since the O.B.H.S. game, School had lost four main players, which had left the team much depleted when it travelled to Christchurch to play the second top team in the South Island (and likely so in New Zealand). Linwood's first half exhibition was excellent. They combined well as a team and went to half time three goals up. However, in the first half it was S.B.H.S. that scored the first goal of the match from an indirect free kick which hit Stuart Grant before entering the goal; but the referee did not think so and the goal was disallowed.

The second half was a different story. Linwood could not keep the pace of the first half up and School had the best of the game for most of the half. However, we lacked the finish needed to score goals and had to be satisfied with a five-goal loss. The Linwood team, although quite strong, had some weaknesses which School should have been able to use more. All members of the School team played sound games, but lack of combination, co-ordination and determination meant that Linwood had a comfortable win.

July 15: v. King's—won 5-1

On paper, King's looked to be a reasonably accomplished side but, like ourselves, lacking in individual brilliance, and the game was expected to be a close, hard-fought affair. But a brilliant first-half display by Southland meant that the result was beyond doubt at half time. With the advantage of a slight breeze which we had in the first half, School gave a good exhibition of sustained pressure which resulted in us being four goals up at half time. This was due to very good penetration in the forwards, who were finding gaps in the King's defence with relative ease, and solid backing up by the defence. Instrumental in our success in this half was an outstanding display by Stuart Grant who played left-wing. He was supported by Graeme Parmenter whose general ability as a controller in the forwards helped our supremacy in the forward line.

In the second half the game decreased to a standard more suited to the conditions, but the general determination of the School to gain their first inter-school win of the season meant that S.B.H.S. ran out deserved winners. Scorers for School were S. Grant (3), R. Malcolm and G. Parmenter.

July 27: v. Timaru—drawn 4-4

(Played at S.B.H.S.)

A quagmire at S.B.H.S. greeted both teams in the match against Timaru. The visiting side were a well-drilled team that tried to the very end and scored in the last minute to even the game. This game should never have been lost, but the mud and other factors proved too much for us and we lost control in the final minutes of the match. The first half was all ours due to four fine goals by G. Parmenter and at half time we were up 4-1. In the second half Timaru gradually took control (mainly due to their captain, P. Paris) and were able to secure a draw. Scorer was G. Parmenter (4).

Generally our inter-school visits were quite successful. It is the first time that we have had more than one inter-school win for many years. However, this should have been vastly improved as the team played some good football. The players who stood out in the inter-schools were S. Grant, G. Parmenter and R. Malcolm. Top inter-school goal-scorers were: G. Parmenter (5), S. Grant (4) and Ross Malcolm (2).

The team is indebted to Sandy Flynn, Bruce Berg and Russell Bragg who played for us during the season. Their personal sacrifices meant that the team could function properly.

It was a pity that the team lost S. Hutchby, D. Sommerville, R. Blakely and B. Collins when it did because it was just coming to its peak, and if these boys had remained the 1970 1st XI would have been easily the finest this School has produced.

The team wishes to thank Mr. Vercauteren for the many hours which he spent with the team, and although it was not as successful as he would have liked, the 1st XI played attractive football and won much praise both inside and outside the School.

THIRD ELEVEN

The beginning of the season saw the team struggling, but as the season advanced it showed considerable improvement due to the efforts of Mr. Smith and Mr. McIntyre to whom we all owe a debt of gratitude. The team record was 2 wins and 11 losses with 20 goals scored for and 65 against. The scorers were Anderson, McAuliffe, Faul, Early, Hensley and Duncan. The other team members were Bannister, Fiebig, Silcock, Braam, McKillop, Barnsdale, Furness and Sherborne.

FIFTH GRADE A

Captain: D. Fearn

During the season the Fifth Grade A played 12 games. Results: Played 12, won 8, lost 4; the goals for 58, goals against 30. The top scorer for the team was B. Halder.

We lost three games in the first round but in the second round we improved greatly, only losing one to Hargest A.

The team: D. Fearn, R. Butler, T. Cassee, D. Carter, W. Emerson, S. Furness, R. Hesson, E. Horseman, B. Halder, K. Millard, C. Poole, D. Robertson, J. Williamson, P. Wright, I. Thomas, Wilson.

Our thanks to Mr. Cassee for his assistance at our practices and at our games.

Basketball

FIRST FIVE

Captain: G. J. Colhoun Coach: Mr. G. D. Alabaster

This season was an extremely mixed one for the First Five. Due to a rearrangement of the A Grade Men's Competition, we entered in B Grade this year but we quickly found that there was still a high standard of play. We won as many games as we lost but all the games were closely fought and enjoyable tussles. Most of the opposition had changed little over the years and had a substantial teamwork advantage over the School team.

This year's team was fairly inexperienced and this, combined with a lack of height, created difficulties in many of the earlier games. However, some of the smaller members of the team played inches above their height and out-rebounded taller opponents. Defensive work was generally reasonably stable with the zone used to good effect especially in the inter-schools. The attack often lacked sting and long-range shots were often needlessly resorted to. The team showed its full attacking potential on two occasions when it defeated the eventual winners and runner-up of the competition. However, under tension the team could crack up as shown by the defeat we received at the hands of Hargest despite having beaten them comfortably earlier on in the season.

The team would like to sincerely thank Mr. G. D. Alabaster for his tolerance and most valuable coaching. Every member of the team learned something from his experience and all possessed a sound knowledge of the fundamentals by the end of the season.

During the season Colhoun, Bayliss, McLean and Harris represented Southland Colts and Colhoun represented B Grade men.

The Players

M. HARRIS: Maurice continued to develop good ball control and always gave his best both on attack and defence. Played a sound game against O.B.H.S.

C. MCLENNAN: Chris featured prominently on defence but on attack lacked the confidence in himself to take the shot. Should develop into a thoughtful and dependable basketballer.

NEIL McDOWELL: Neil could always be relied upon to play a hard, dependable game. His play improved notably throughout the season and he was producing some fine goals in the last games.

T. BAYLISS: Trevor's experience was appreciated greatly earlier in the season. He never scored many goals but was a reliable link man.

S. BROWN: Stewart often played well above his height and was always giving his best. Like Chris, was unsure of himself on attack but towards the end of the season overcame this handicap.

B. MCLEAN: Brett developed tremendously throughout the season, making good use of his height for rebounding and offensive shooting. Should develop into a skilled basketballer as he matures.

G. COLHOUN (Captain): Gary, one of the taller players, played consistently well throughout the season, scoring many of the team's points. He showed much determination in his shooting and defence and set a good example.

INTER-SCHOOL MATCHES

v. O.B.H.S.—lost 71-38

This game was played before a large crowd of O.B.H.S. supporters in the Caledonian Gymnasium, Dunedin. The unfamiliar conditions and lack of confidence resulted in us being down 20 points after 10 minutes. However, on settling down, School fought back to be down 38-22 at half time.

After the break it was all Otago with Campbell excelling. Lack of height and the springy backboard hampered our style of play and O.B.H.S. eventually ran out winners 71-38. For School, Harris and McLean scored 12 points apiece and Campbell scored 24 for the opposition.

v. K.H.S.—lost 51-49

The morning of the game saw Harris ill with the flu so Phil Black was called upon to help out, and for good measure Lindsay Walker was called out of retirement.

This game, played at Surrey Park, provided a thrilling, fast-moving game between two evenly matched teams. King's took the early advantage while School adapted itself to its unfamiliar combination, but with some good rebounds by Walker, Black and Colhoun and forceful attack combined with resolute defence, School fought back to be down 29-22 at the break.

Settling down quickly after the break, School used the fast break off the zone defence to our advantage and the game developed into a hard, foul-for-point game and had the crowd on its toes. With a minute to go the scores were even, but over-eagerness on defence resulted in a costly foul and C. Pearson very coolly goaled twice for King's to give them a two-point lead and the match.

FIRST BASKETBALL FIVE

Back row: S. J. Brown, B. M. McLean, C. J. McLennan
Front row: N. A. McDowell, G. J. Colhoun (Captain), T. I. Bayliss, M. J. Harris

SECOND FIVE

Captain: P. J. Ash

The Second Five combined well as a team this year to be well up in the Men's D Grade Competition. During the year a great improvement was shown in the styles of S. Paterson and S. Wild who improved tremendously.

Very keen games were played against Hargest and Murihiku and in each game only a few points separated the winning team. Murihiku's fitness won over us but our defence against Hargest proved too tight.

S. PATERSON: This defender's dribbling ability was an asset to our defence and he was always in position to stop fast breaks.

R. IBBOTSON: A driving and forceful attacker, Russell could always be found under the basket and scored many of his points from lay-ups.

G. MILLS: Played a very quiet and steady game and should improve with more experience.

P. J. ASH (Captain): His dribbling ability helped the defence to play more of an attacking game. He set up many shots and balanced the court on both attack and defence.

S. R. BURGESS: This unusual player had good height and was able to hold his own with any opposing centres. His scoring ability was good and he was an invaluable figure under the basket.

INTERMEDIATE GRADE A Team

This year we were the winners of the Centennial Hall Basketball Competition, winning 13 out of 14 games. This was due to the teamwork and good playing throughout the season. On behalf of the team I would like to thank Mr. Tiplady for his invaluable coaching. The members of the team were:

P. Webb (Captain), B. McPherson (Vice-Captain), A. Clarke, D. Cross, P. Reid, B. Lindsay, S. Lapthorne, N. Staite, C. Crosswell.

B Team

During the competition, the B team played 10 games, winning only two, this being partly due to the constant failing of some members of the team to show up. However, the members who did constantly turn up, played to the best of their ability, the outstanding players being D. Matheson, I. Manson, C. McCulloch and M. Burns.

The team was captained by C. McCulloch and coached by Mr. Tiplady.

JUNIOR GRADE D Team

Captain: K. Wilson Coach: Mr. Tiplady

The D team had an unsuccessful season, winning only one game, against Hargest, and losing all its games to Southland College and the School A, B and C teams. Our thanks to Mr. Tiplady for his time spent in coaching us.

The team was: K. Wilson (Captain), A. Weir, P. Bugden, M. Nicholl, H. Weir, B. Tinker, R. Dunn, L. Galbraith, R. Morris and M. Gallagher.

Badminton

With badminton becoming an official winter sport this year, many boys were able to take it as their main sport, whereas in previous years it had been necessary to play it in addition to the already established winter sports.

Having four teams in the Schoolboys' Competition, two in Group A and the other two in Group B, the club ably demonstrated the strength of badminton in the School. The School's No. 1 team of P. Skelt, G. Parmenter, N. Skelt and M. Parmenter, convincingly won the Group A section against teams from James Hargest, Marist and the other S.B.H.S. team which was third in the same group. The School teams in Group B were placed.

The No. 1 team contained three Southland Under 18 representatives in P. Skelt, G. Parmenter and N. Skelt, so it was hardly surprising that this team dominated the competition. In view of the strength of badminton in the School, an inter-school competition with an Otago team would be of great benefit to the club, providing an opportunity for School players to play much stronger opposition than they meet in local competition. This, hopefully, may eventuate in the 1971 season.

The club now has the period after school each Friday to make use of the Surrey Park Stadium, and attendance at this session is usually between 15 and 20 players. Mr. Berridge continues as master in charge of the sport.

and his help and instruction provides encouragement for many boys who take up the game in their first years at high school. Besides organising the club games, Mr. Berridge also enjoys the game as a player, and is not past humbling some of the more talented members at the sport. The players' thanks and appreciation go to Mr. Berridge for his invaluable guidance in the club.

The club championships, held near the end of the season, saw N. Skelt take the Singles title—quite an achievement for a 13-year-old. A few members from the club entered in the New Zealand Championships held in Invercargill during the August holidays.

The most successful players from the School were Peter Skelt, who took the Singles and Mixed Doubles titles in the Under 16's, and his brother Nigel who won the Singles and Doubles titles in the Under 14 section. Michael Parmenter also did well in taking the Under 16 Plate and Umpires' Cup in what proved to be a very successful tournament for Southland.

The Southland Under 18 tournament two weeks later saw G. Parmenter and P. Skelt take all the honours in the boys' section. G. Parmenter took the Singles and Doubles titles, and P. Skelt won the Mixed Doubles partnered by G. Parmenter, and also the Mixed Doubles.

The School Badminton Club can undoubtedly look forward to an equally successful year in 1971, and hopefully the strength of the sport in the School will continue to grow in the years to follow.

Gymnastics

After several years of apathy, sufficient interest was shown to continue the Gymnastics Club in 1970. The club, consisting of approximately 15 members, met every Tuesday and Thursday nights in the winter for an hour of concentrated practice.

Two teams were entered in the Southland Gymnastics Festival held in August, receiving the first two places. Team A consisted of: B. R. Pol, G. P. Burrows, M. E. Parmenter, M. L. Slaughter, A. J. Mennie, who were placed first, followed closely by Team B: P. J. Ash, B. C. Everett, B. N. Shields and W. Lathern.

Cricket

FIRST ELEVEN

Captain: B. J. McKechnie Coach: Mr. G. D. Alabaster

With the loss of key players at the beginning of the season and the Christmas break, the First Eleven was somewhat inexperienced. However, the team once again managed to win the Senior Reserve Competition. The team did concede one first innings loss but generally found themselves in the field twice. This shows the lack of competition for the First Eleven in this grade. As a result, the chances for each player to show his capabilities are few.

For the first half of the season the pace bowling lay with Dick Webb. But, because of dropped catches and a degree of inaccuracy, he didn't have the success expected. With his departure, the opening attack was shared by Brian McKechnie and Phil Paris. Both bowled consistently well and had regular success. The team once again had two capable spinners in John Shaw and Geoff Murdoch. Both had the ability to dismiss opposing sides and achieved well-deserved success. With John's departure, Richard Bunton joined the team. As an off-spinner, he suffered early on, but improved greatly as the season progressed. His efforts against King's were very pleasing. Another bowler to join the team was Keith Laidlaw. As a pace bowler, he didn't have great success but bowled well against Otago Boys'.

The batting this season was somewhat inconsistent compared with that of previous seasons, although several good scores were recorded. Most batsmen had the ability to score runs, but lack of appearances at the wicket and inexperience let them down. Brian McKechnie once again scored the most runs this season although not having much success in the inter-schools. John Flaus and Geoff Murdoch were others to score consistently well and both had successful seasons. When in form, Richard Bunton was perhaps the most entertaining batsman in the side with his lofted shots being his strong-point. Phil Paris and Jim Stevenson also batted well and should be a greater force next season. Ian Singleton

FIRST CRICKET ELEVEN

had two good inter-school innings but otherwise didn't have the success expected. The main reason for his failure would be his liking for attacking the bowling early in his innings. The honour of scoring the only century of the season went to Donald Shirley. His 109 not out in two hours against Georgetown was delightful to watch.

Early in the season the team's fielding was not of a high standard but improved greatly as the season progressed. As wicket-keeper, John Flaus usually gave consistent performances.

The team wishes to thank Mr. Alabaster for the time he spent with the First Eleven and hope the team's performances made it worth while.

INTER-SCHOOLS

v. St. Andrews at Christchurch, 9th-10th December, 1969

St. Andrew's won the toss and elected to bat on a hard wicket. Good batting by Joyce and Pither gave their total respectability. However, a fine spell of medium-pace bowling from McKechnie helped dismiss St. Andrew's for 181.

S.B.H.S. began slowly in order to build a respectable score, but with the dismissal of Baker, a collapse set in, only Galbraith and Pascoe showing any resistance. However, with their dismissal, Bunton and Stevenson came together and with some intelligent batting, added 47 runs for the last wicket. However, S.B.H.S. were dismissed for 126, 55 runs in arrears.

St. Andrew's began their second innings disastrously, losing two quick wickets to Thomson. However, as in the first innings, Joyce and Pither batted beautifully, with Joyce going on to score a magnificent 118 not out in even time. This enabled St. Andrew's to declare at 215 for three wickets, leaving S.B.H.S. three hours in which to score 271 runs needed for victory. This seemed almost impossible but there was some attractive batting once again from Galbraith, with assistance coming from Singleton and Murdoch. At stumps, S.B.H.S. were 170 for four wickets.

S.B.H.S. were fortunate in having the services of Galbraith, Thomson and Pascoe for the game.

v. O.B.H.S. at Invercargill 19th-20th March, 1970

On a rain-affected wicket, O.B.H.S. won the toss and elected to bat. With the wicket being very slow and giving no assistance to the bowlers, O.B.H.S. went to lunch at 87 for two wickets. However, with the help of an early breakthrough after lunch by McKechnie and some fine bowling by Paris and Murdoch, O.B.H.S. were dismissed for 145.

S.B.H.S. began slowly but after the loss of an early wicket, Flaus and McKechnie came together. These two added 53 runs for the second wicket in 70 minutes, and at stumps S.B.H.S. were 68 for three wickets.

The next morning the S.B.H.S. batsmen failed to score runs quickly and at lunch were 103 for five wickets. A draw was now inevitable. Midway through the afternoon, S.B.H.S. declared at 126 for six wickets.

O.B.H.S. began their second innings disastrously, losing five quick wickets to McKechnie. However, with a draw being the only result possible, interest in the game was lost and when stumps were drawn O.B.H.S. were 75 for five wickets.

v. King's High at Dunedin 24th-25th March, 1970

King's High won the toss and elected to bat on a rain-affected wicket. With some good batting from Facoory, Weatherston and Heal, King's High reached 213 before being dismissed. Good bowling by Bunton and McKechnie kept the runs down.

S.B.H.S. began disastrously and never recovered, finally being dismissed for a dismal 24 runs. Although the King's bowlers bowled well, most S.B.H.S. batsmen brought about their own dismissal.

S.B.H.S. were forced to follow on and a repeat of the first innings looked possible. However, S.B.H.S. went to stumps at 30 for four wickets. On the second morning S.B.H.S. lost an early wicket but some fine batting from Singleton and Paris brought some respectability to the score. However, S.B.H.S. were dismissed not long after lunch for 115.

Although a lot of credit must go to the King's bowlers, most batsmen failed to cope with the variation in bounce and therefore brought about their own dismissal. As far as the game is concerned, it was a dismal performance and one that the First Eleven would prefer to forget.

SECOND ELEVEN

Captain: B. McKenzie Coach: Mr. J. C. Alabaster
 With the loss of a few players after a successful first half of the season, the performance of the team deteriorated and the latter part of the season proved to be one that is best forgotten. The team had the ability to acquitted itself well in the competition, but too often a casual attitude was adopted by the players. A lack of concentration by the batsmen was the main attribute to the lowly totals of the team. All batsmen proved they were capable of scoring runs, but seldom did more than two make reasonable scores in the same game. The bowling, shared by Lawrence, Morton, Pittaway and occasionally, Stirling and Smith, was obviously the best aspect of the team's play, but this, too, suffered through a lack of concentration in the fielding.

Although this was not a very successful season, good team spirit was built up and the team looks forward to a better record next season with the continuing availability of most players.

The team was: B. McKenzie, B. Stirling, D. Lawrence, J. Alabaster, M. Harris, R. Smith, T. Morton, I. MacAra, M. Pittaway, G. Richards, R. Barnett.

THIRD ELEVEN

Captain: R. Dawson

This year's team was composed of a group of energetic but easy-going Seventh Formers. Because of our style of play, we became known as the social team of the School.

Jokes were temporarily suspended when the team pulled itself together to extend a severe thrashing to the so-called Second Eleven. Balfour, with 48, and Alistair Brown, with six for 24, figured prominently in the match.

Despite the loss of key players to the First's midway through the season, the team met with reasonable success.

The "Mighty Thirds" were: L. Gray, M. Osbourne, G. Colhoun, H. Patterson, G. Parmenter, A. Drage, A. Brown, D. Blackie, D. Balfour, P. Bugden, C. Morland, D. Bradley, B. Hilton, D. Ash, D. Squire, B. Bennett and R. Dawson.

FOURTH GRADE A

An enthusiastic team enabled us to get to the top of the Fourth Grade ladder. Thanks to good medium bowling from Logan and Faul, no opposition looked like getting on top. This was backed up by some strong batting in the middle of the order. Logan, Ash and Faul again prominent. Apart from them, however, the batting was poor.

David Storrie's death was an unexpected tragedy. He is sadly missed.

Our thanks go to Mr. Smith for helping to umpire.

The team was: Matheson (Captain), Logan, Faul, Ash, McArthur, Bragg, Chitty, Rankin, Alabaster, Jones, Everett and McCormack.

As usual, this year the highlight of the School tennis calendar was the annual inter-school fixture with Otago Boys' High School, which we won by 11 rubbers to 10. The matches were played in Invercargill in ideal tennis conditions. A decisive feature of Southland Boys' victory was the winning of all games by the No. 1 and 2 players, L. Smith and L. Browning.

The Players

L. J. SMITH: A fine aggressive player who has an unbeaten inter-school record and who has given much to the tennis of the School.

L. BROWNING: A newcomer from Auckland, Lindsay can play some brilliant strokes and was a great asset to the team this year.

C. JAKEWAY: Colin was always a competent player but a little more mobility around the court is required if we are to see the best from him.

A. NASMYTH: A fine-looking player and stroke-maker but at times lapses in concentration cost him dearly.

B. McLEAN: Brett was this year's "find" in tennis. In his first year in the School team he has played very well indeed, winning most of his games in the inter-school matches.

T. BAYLISS: Concentration was certainly not lacking in Trevor's play. A little more attention will have to be paid to fundamentals, but generally he played very well.

Harriers

The season evidenced consistent team performances rather than outstanding individual efforts. It commenced with an encouraging victory for the Colts' team (V. Henry, P. Miller, O. Pickles, A. Rose) in the Colts' Black Relay event at Queen's Park. This was followed by victory at Forest Hills for both the Colts and Junior teams.

The team then went to Gore where the Junior team again won. This made them Southland champs. for the section. G. Hampton ran a fine race to finish third. The defection of A. Rose meant that the Colts' team could only manage second place despite sound individual efforts by V. Henry (third) and P. Miller (fourth).

Most consistent Junior throughout the season was Gerald Hampton, while Vaughan Henry had most success in the Colts' section. Paul Miller, in his first season as a Senior, was the most improved runner of the season.

At the Otago Secondary Schools' Cross-country Championships, the School's teams did not fare quite as well, but all boys gained competitive experience.

Best Performances

22 Shooting

For the first term of the year, the club functioned as a sort of come-when-you-can affair, with coaching being given to virtually any boy, Fourth Form and over, who wished to come. In the third term, however, we began to get organised and conducted an aggregate shoot for the junior and senior trophies.

The aggregate was taken over seven shooting days, with a total of 350 points in both grades. Competition was fierce, and champions were never really decided until the last shoot. Several surprise defeats were encountered, and mistakes in the senior competition proved costly for many, with consistency winning the day.

Results were:

Senior: H. R. F. Miller (339/350) 1, J. H. Forrest (337/350) 2, C. Toms (336/350) 3.

Junior: I. W. Brown (335/350) 1, L. Aylward (329/350) and P. Webb (329/350), equal, 2.

We extend our thanks to Messrs. Waterston, Deacon and Preece, as well as to the other masters who have given their time to supervise our activities.

Athletics

THE SCHOOL SPORTS

The School's annual athletic competitions were held in sunny weather on 9th and 10th March—a little later than usual.

The sports, held on the School ground, were highlighted by some fine performances—several records were either broken or equalled. In the Under 14 section, I. Sherborne broke the Championship Discus with a throw of 128ft. 5in.—over 3ft. more than the existing record.

B. Sherborne broke the Intermediate Discus record by 4ft. 11in. with a throw of 100ft. 11in. Also in the intermediate section, J. Kirkland put the Shot 40ft. 3in.—creating a new record.

There was only one record set in the Senior section. L. Walker put the Shot 43ft. 8½in.—over 2ft. more than the previous record.

Here are the detailed results of the events:—

Swimming Sports

The annual Swimming Sports were held on Thursday evening, 24th September—the first time an evening sports has been run.

A disappointing factor was the small attendance—about 200 boys. This may have been accounted for by a combination of exam pressures on pupils and very cold, bleak conditions.

Results were:—

WHAT I WOULD DO IF I BECAME RICH

Most people hope that some day they will become rich, but very few know what they are going to do with the money when they get it. Personally, I don't want to get rich, but if I do I know what I'm going to do with my money. I would divide the money into four sections. The first section would be for travel.

I am very fond of travel. The first place I would travel to would be South Africa where I would visit some of the Game Reserves. From there I would travel up through Africa, through the Middle East to France

In the field of business I would buy a few garages, a group of chain stores, some heavy industries including automobile, aircraft and shipyards. I would also buy an oil field and a few mines. The money made from these would be put away for future development. The next section of $2,000,000 would go to the charity of my choice. This charity is the crippled returned servicemen to whom I owe my whole being.

Whatever money is left would be put in a bank for safe keeping. After all this about being rich, I still think that life in the middle and lower classes would be best because money makes and breaks men, and I don't want to be broken.

SEEN AT SCHOOL!

where I'd watch champagne being made and look over Paris from the Eiffel Tower. London would be my next stop where I would just rest from the bedlam of travel. From London I would go to the U.S.S.R. just to look at what goes on behind the Iron Curtain. After this I would go round all the motor racing Grand Prix I could, and after this I'd come home.

The next section would be for leisure.

For leisure I'd have an 18-hole golf course, a big stadium with a 100-metre swimming pool, a rifle range and a racing circuit around the outside of the inner stadium. I would buy a huge area of wild hill country with bush and rivers where I could fish and hunt whenever I wanted to. The next section would be for business.

PAINTING THE HOUSE

The other day Dad decided that it was time we painted the house; Mum had been nagging at him for months. The next day we all went to town. Mum and Dad argued for ages which paint shop we would go to, but Dad finally won. Mum and Dad and Sis and I all trooped into the shop and started choosing paints. Dad, being a practical chap, found a tin of paint with a label that said, "Tested in blazing heat, biting cold, resists wind, dust and mud, washes clean in the rain." However, there was only one colour, which didn't worry Dad, but Mum hated it. She and Sis were arguing over a couple of shades of pink. I thought they were sissy colours with very soppy names. However, Mum's authority prevailed and we set off home with several tins of "Rubella", which I thought was extremely funny.

When we arrived back home Dad's temper was restored, especially as the tins said, "Needs only one coat" and "Dries to a dazzling finish in 20 minutes." We decided that Mum should open the first tin. Dad fetched her a screwdriver and she prised open the lid. That's where I got my own back, because Mum thought the smell was terrible, but I liked it.

We all set to with brushes, Mum, Sis and I painting the lower half, and Dad on a step ladder painting the top. Soon Mum started to complain that her arms ached, while Dad was repeatedly cursing his back. Mum was careful to keep her nose well away from the paint. Soon she ran inside saying that she had to cook the lunch. I didn't mind because I was starving, as usual. However, by lunchtime we had painted the front wall.

Dad took exactly twenty minutes to eat his lunch and rushed outside. He was soon back, grumbling about "false advertising" and "the deliberate deception of the people". Then he ordered us back outside and said that there was no tea for anyone till it was finished. Mum and I started on one side and Dad and Sis started the other.

Occasionally an obscene word met our ears as Dad did something wrong. Then Mum would say that she wished Dad would stop using those naughty words. The afternoon progressed and the sun went round on to my back. The occasional bumble bee buzzed by and one stuck on to the paint. Mum stopped complaining and the sickly smell of the paint made me feel drowsy. I started to whistle "Pretty Girl". Then, suddenly, there was a terrific clatter, a thump and a string of words that Mum had never even heard of. We rushed round the other side and found that Dad had fallen off the ladder. Miraculously the paint tin had landed up the right way and Dad was unhurt! He was soon back on his perch.

We knocked off at four for "teaternoonaft", as Dad called it. He gave us only ten minutes and then chased us back outside. Mum did not want to go, but Dad said that "Them as don't work don't eat", and so she had to.

A little later the sides were finished and we started the back. The gap between Dad and Sis, and Mum and me, was closing rapidly. However, the shadows were rapidly growing longer and the gap between the sun and the horizon was getting smaller. Nevertheless we won, and finally there was only one brush-stroke left to paint. Then we erupted into another argument. Each one of us wanted to paint the last stroke. This argument carried on till it was too dark to paint it anyway. Thus the house was painted and we all agree that home had never looked better.

AN EXCITING SPORT

Judo! Some people tremble at the word, thinking of quick, artful blows and heavy falls. However, in reality these people have no idea what they are talking about for "judo" means "the gentle way", and that is what it is. There are no punches or kicking as in karate, but just an interesting and exciting sport.

While on the mat, a judoist must be mannerly and wide-awake. After learning to "fall" correctly, he is taught the basic throws.

Judo is one of the fastest-growing sports in New Zealand and exciting to watch. For, if an opponent has not put his heart or alertness into the sport he may be caught off-guard with a flying "hari goshi" or a dazzling "seo nage" or some other throw.

As in most other sports, the judoist must be fit, healthy, wide-awake, and thoughtful.

Some of the things a younger member of a club hopes for are: fun and excitement, a way to protect oneself from bullies and ruffians without injuring them, and taking part in one of the most exciting and worthwhile sports for all ages that can be offered in this country today.

THE UPROAR

A great uproar in Parliament occurred the other day
When the sturdy wall of National finally gave way.
The reason for this upset, to all is very clear:
Sir Leslie Munro and Mr. Seath the bells did not hear.
And so the great big Norman and all his musketeers
Asked for a resignation, and debates went on for years.
The orators kept speaking for sixteen hours and more,
But try as they might big Norm's boys could not increase their score.
And soon it will all blow over and by the wayside wait,
'Till the next time National wearies and sleeps a little late.

FIRE

Fire, for your power I yearn.
Fire, how quickly you burn.
Like a miniature sun you heat and brighten a room
With virile vigour, you raze the land and over us loom,
Shadowing us with your ever-imposing dominance.
And with that hand of power
You hold in us fear
With images of destruction
That through our minds sear,
And bring to us the strength of your presence.
Fire, that destructor of land.
Fire, the helper of man.
FIRE!

JUST BLINDNESS

Just like a blind man we climb the stairs;
The stairs of progress. But to where?
Just like a blind man we probe the unknown dark,
We stretch out our hand grasping for knowledge;
The knowledge that will enable us to progress,
And struggle blindly up the next step.
Just like a blind man we trip and stumble.
Our mistakes are explosive and the fall is deadly;
But after the fall we persist and regain our strength,
Only to trip and fall again.
When will we learn that fast progress
Can only be made with slow and careful steps?
Once our eyes opened wide and we looked;
Looked back at the crooked path we had taken.
We saw the blood which lay from our falls.
We saw the crosses where our families had died,
But we ignored the past. Suffering and Death.
And our sight was again taken away.
Like a blind man we will hurry on.
And like a blind man we will stumble and fall.

AS SILLY AS A SIMILE

As easy as pie . . . as sure as shooting . . . who dreams up these sayings anyway? They are easy to use because everybody knows what they mean, although they don't mean anything.

For instance, "As easy as taking candy from a baby." Separating a baby from a sucker requires the heart of the Marquis de Sade.

"As warm as toast." Of all the things to pick on as an example of warmth, why pick toast? By the time it has got to a plate, been buttered and spread with marmalade, as cool as toast would make more sense.

"As snug as a bug." Going by the amount of insecticide purchased nowadays there seems to be a lot of anti-bug sentiment around. Any bug which feels snug in a rug is living in a fool's paradise.

Actually, the whole simile situation is in complete disruption, as anybody who isn't as dull as a button will agree.

BOY GOING TO WAR

The poem is the thoughts of a young man who has been called to go to war, as he walks a beach at home.

I called and called,
And no-one could hear
The fear of death I felt,
Before I had lived my life.
To fight the yellow tide
In the bowels of nature's beauty:
To turn the rotting bodies
With a muddy boot
I will quietly go.
I cast my contempt
Upon the sand
And upon the sea,
And the waves fling it back at me
To let it dry and wither in the sun.
And the wind-whipped sand
Hitting sadly against my face
Closes gently my eyes
To the realism of life.

HIGH ADVENTURE SPORTS

By "High Adventure Sports" I do not mean the futile activities engaged in by the vast majority of the human race (pointless games such as soccer, hockey, and others too numerous and tiresome to mention), but those pastimes reserved for the enlightened few who are interested in pitting their wits against noble adversaries and observing the natural world around them. Hunting and fishing are foremost among these, although mountain climbing, flying, yachting, etc., are not to be forgotten.

The most important attributes of these sports are that they build character, ingenuity, things which will assist a person to extract the most from his short span of years.

The collective noun "sports" is not used lightly, although in the cases of fishing and shooting the majority cannot see how we derive pleasure from killing. However, the keen Sportsman does not get his kicks from mere killing. He shoots or angles for the pleasure of seeing the countryside at its most appealing, for the satisfaction of good companionship, and last but not least, for the thrill of overcoming difficulties, mastering skills, and bringing home the bacon. But, alas, there are "pothunters" (those who go out with the sole intention of slaughtering as much as they can—regardless of size or quality) and such people have been responsible for much of the ill-feeling towards blood sports and their participants today. Pothunters have not only given hunting and fishing a bad name, but they have also frightened potential converts, with their brutal actions and callous attitudes.

Do not get me wrong when I praise these sports, for every blood sport is not necessarily worthwhile. Two such which come to mind are bullfighting and foxhunting. These obscenities do not deserve to be classified as sports, for they are merely undisguised outlets for the basic savagery which lurks in all of us. Unlike hunting and fishing they embody harrassing an animal until it is too exhausted and pain-racked to put up any further struggle, whereupon it is summarily despatched. In angling, a fish may be released once it has been landed, and in hunting the shooter always aims for a quick, humane kill, but bullfighters and foxhunters have no such ambitions. They seek to prolong the pain and suffering, thus increasing the "sport". The sooner both these activities are abolished the better!

DESCRIPTION OF A SCHOOL MEMBER

X, or Henry, I will call him. As he is still at school a fictitious name will bring no embarrassment to him.

Henry is one of the School's less well-known celebrities. This is because up to this year he was just one of those hundreds of boys. However, at the beginning of the year or near it he was raised from the hundreds to be appointed . . . as a Prefect. The reason for this is to most of us obscure, and to some absurd. This princely office was to focus much attention to him.

When you see him, his appearance at a distance makes you think that he is one of the many queer-looking pupils around the School. Suddenly you see "the badge". On it is the word "Prefect". Instantly you are studying him more closely than you would for any other normal person. His jerky step bounds him along and as his unusual, even contorted figure advances, you watch closely. First curiosity, then amazement, pass over your face like an indicator. His thick black but short hair meets his dark-rimmed glasses that cover his sparkling intellectual eyes. Phenomenal growth has appeared and now these crawl raggedly out from under his glasses. His dark yellowish face has a blemish, but with the glasses he looks intellectually bright. As he passes you see him from behind, medium-sized head but shorter body and legs. A thrust-forward head and curved back one observes. So he has gone by. You have been very intrigued by his somewhat peculiar appearance.

Henry, or X, has all the characteristics of a good speaker and debater. He has exquisite pronunciation and is never difficult to understand. When he is the duty prefect in assembly he pronounces each word with renewed vitality and expression, much to our amusement. He is exceptionally bright, very clever and his mind can sometimes be cunning, though never in a bad way. It is calculating, cool, calm and very efficient. Henry is wonderfully bright at chess: champion for Otago-Southland secondary schools. He is almost pompous and his sense of humour intermingles with work even on the worst occasions. Once he even announced part of a First Fifteen notice in the junior assembly. Finally, he does possess athletic ability. He tries in races and he had a memorable occasion (and so did the School) in the school sports. He was allowed to win the School Mile!

JULY 20th, 1944

They were small men, resolved to a task;
They were but a handful of a nation numbering millions,
Yet they could have saved many from the horror of the bloody abyss.
A colonel led the way for them,
A revered old soldier lent his name to them,
A desert hero, the mass's idol—supported them;
They were businessmen and aristocrats, clergy and Wehrmacht,
All with a common goal.
A wolf's lair bathed in morning sunlight,
A bomb, a briefcase, an innocent shift and failure in sight;
A peal of thunder, a pall of smoke, but the failure of all hope.
The tyrant's revenge was swift, poison and piano wire barbaric and effective,
But not before mockery and indignity and the capturing of their death throes for the pleasure of Megalomania.

WHAT HAPPENS TO THIS COPY?

Dear Sir,

The selection committee for the original contribution section of the "Southlandian" accepts only a few of the probable not-very-many entries. There are two main reasons for this: lack of incentive, and pupils do not usually try for their best effort when a teacher has forced an original contribution upon them. Furthermore, the original contribution section is the section showing just what the school can do scholastically, so why not place more emphasis on this vital section, after some people spend much more time reading the original contributions than the sporting records of the School? After all, it's not inexcusable that some people are not interested in our first fifteens and elevens.

Another point of discussion is what happens to the discarded efforts of some, who probably sat toiling over a sheet of foolscap for a time longer than the talented few who composed accepted copies? The whole School has the opportunity to present their original contributions, so why not allow those who wish to compose their copies and immediately place them in the magazine, as those that take the initiative in life will get along; so take my advice, don't stop willing workers, please.

—D. G., 4A

ORIGINAL CONTRIBUTION

Like a frisking colt he bounds through the door
And streaks behind the chair.
He looks at me from where he sits,
Then stretches like a rubber band, and flexes
His paws on the carpet.
He seems to settle down to wash his paws
When move, he is off again,
Racing round the room.
When I laugh, away he goes again,
Under a chair he lies.
Swiping, at my outstretched hand.
Then he dashes out the other side.
And, tired, he finds the couch,
Curls up and sleeps.

ODE TO THE CONTEMPORARY SCHOOLBOY

Ambition's vile seed supplanted,
By desire of popularity;
Classical verse replaced
By the quest for clarity,
And in each conscientious lad
Is found (they say) disparity.
Dissension in the godly ranks of
Caps and gowns and mortars
Will result (they fear) in education's slaughter,
Dissension in the staffroom amidst the lukewarm tea
Is mainly over the wage rise. But Mr. Talboys would fain see Decisive action left to the P.P.T.A. and me.

MR. WILLIAMS' SWAN SONG

There comes a time, as you well know,
When from these parts one has to go,
To leave this land of swirling fogs
Where Rugby's played in squelching bogs,
Where icebergs scrape Oreti's sands
And chilblains hurt the strongest hands.
There was a fellow in these parts,
Was yearning for the higher arts;
To England he was bound to go:
He taught in Southland to get some dough.
Departure came with some relief,
But not without nostalgic grief,
For the boys, though generous in offence
(Belying their appearance of innocence),
When having him on with all their might
Were giving him pleasure and deep delight.
To a monastery he was about to go,
For the way of Priesthood he sought to know,
And if that thought has just arrived
That monks are of life's pleasure deprived,
Then remember what you have been told
On slack afternoons in those classrooms so cold:
Remember Brother Ambrose of the tale,
Who enjoyed the Spring, and quaffed the ale.
We must stop now and take our leave
And no longer on this parting grieve;
Just remember that often at daily Mass.
While bells and monkish voices clash,
Noote will think with pleasure that never cloys,
Of all those rowdy Coldstream boys.

ST. JOHN'S NEW PHILOSOPHY

The ripping of the drape yields force
Of rending, of the black rending
On that bleak day when Jesus
Walked along past the shutter of envy.

Mary smiled smugly at him,
At the chosen who she knew would Leave her and return. But not to find
Her. Someone had turned the switch of complacency.

The shielded eyes looked back
So as not to pierce the crust
Which so often had hidden their conscience
And had force for the opening of the port of conviction.

Lifeless jackets lay on the cobbled
Paths of the lee-ways to the mind.
But no-one wanted the plumes to filter
Among the voices of the self-seeking sycophants of glory.

At last the heralded figure came through scrawny
Oblique shiftings in vision—missing the purpose
Of the other two—only the wood remained heavy.
He had known what now we don't. We of complex simplicity.

John the reporter reaches his final chapter;
No palm leaves now stifle the path,
No crown sits lovely on his prophetic head,
No-one can see the badge of hypocrisy, or of respite.

All that survives is the flowing hair of youth.
